Faithful Citizenship "My wish is that all of us, after these days of grace, will have the courage, yes, the courage, to walk in the presence of the Lord, with the Lord's Cross; to build the Church on the Lord's blood which was poured out on the Cross; and to profess the one glory: Christ crucified. And in this way, the Church will go forward." Pope Francis, "Missa pro Ecclesia" with the Cardinal electors: Homily of the Holy Father Pope Francis, March 14, 2013. www.vatican.va (From: Diocesan Social Justice Commission www.rapidcitydiocese.org/Ministries/SocialJustice.htm)

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

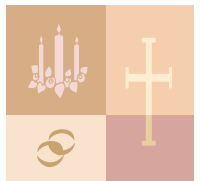

Our Confirmation service was great! Thank you to all involved in that very long process. David and Chris VanCleave, Jill Leberknight and Ralph and Rita Dupres were the adult coordinators. They did a great labor of love.

On April 20, in the morning from 9-12, we will have a retreat for the young people of our parish who will be receiving their First communion. At the 5:30 evening Mass on April 20, there will be First Communion for those people. So, please keep them in your prayers.

As you can see, many things are happening in the parish and all of these things are made possible by the great help and support of YOU!

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher & Emily (Smith) MILLS on your marriage, April 6, 2013.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

The World Day of Prayer for Vocations is celebrated on April 21, 2013, the fourth Sunday of Easter. This year, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI asked us to meditate on the theme: Vocations, a Sign of Hope Founded in Faith. Let us pray that God would raise up many vocations to priesthood and consecrated life, and that our young people would be open to the gift of God's love. Let us also pray for all priests and for consecrated men and women at this time. Send a card to your parish priest or to someone you know who is consecrated this week, thanking them for the gift of themselves given to Christ and to His body, the Church, or invite them for dinner. Pray for more vocations to priesthood and consecrated life – and consider a vocation to priesthood or consecrated life! Posters promoting this day can be downloaded for print at www.Gods-call.org or mailed by calling Bridget Decker at 605-716-5214.

Are you a lifesaver?

On April 13th and 14th, the Catholic Daughters will be giving out lifesaver candies after all the Masses. This is to call attention to the State Catholic Daughter Abuse Project. The donations received this year will be given to Catholic Social Services. In turn, CSS will use the funds to assist in their counseling services for abuse victims on the Cheyenne River Reservation. CSS partners with the Sacred Heart Center in Eagle Butte to offer these counseling services. Sacred Heart Center's Women's Shelter provides a safe haven for women and their children fleeing from domestic violence. Sacred Heart also has a group home which houses children who may be displaced from their families due to abuse. In 2012, 566 counseling sessions were provided to clients from Sacred Heart's Women's Shelter and the Children's group home. For that same time period 936 total clients were provided group counseling services. The need is great. Please be as generous as possible. Thank you. Court St. Rita #916, Catholic Daughters. Story of Client

One women's story of violence depicts the severity level of clients that are provided counseling services. Laura first came to Sacred Heart's Women's Shelter to begin to heal from a sexual assault that had just occurred. Through counseling services that were provided it was learned that she had endured a previous sexual assault at a young age and was still dealing with the effects of this too. Laura has also experienced severe physical and emotional violence in a recent intimate relationship which she continues to heal from as well. Through counseling services provided by Catholic Social Services she has been given the caring and support to help her through her healing journey.

Rachel's Vineyard, a retreat to help those hurting from abortion, will be held in our diocese April 26-28. We can help those organizing and those attending the retreat with our prayers. Adoration for the retreat will be held at Cathedral in Our Lady's Chapel Friday from 6 pm to 10 pm, Saturday from 8:30 am to 10 pm, and Sunday, Noon to 3 pm. Please sign up for an hour of prayer in your local parish or call Gail Wingert at 430-1190. Thank you!

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Ministry
The Holy Spirit at Work

For many of us in the HFNL Jail Ministry, Jesus' Parable of the Sower (Mt. 13:3-8) has special meaning and helps place our work through the Holy Spirit in glorious perspective. Throughout the course of the year, we minister to hundreds of men and women. We share with them the hope, forgiveness, and love of the Lord's Word. Like the seeds in Jesus' parable, these efforts sometimes fall into good ground and bring forth fruit. On occasion we are blessed with being allowed to see the good results. We recently received a letter from one of the young men who participated in HFNL over a year ago and then was transferred to the State Prison in Sioux Falls. He was paroled in December and now lives in a Halfway House with hopes of getting his own place later this spring. He has a job and writes, "I've been going to a church since I got here...I got to spend some time with my family on Christmas Day...we did some swimming and just spent some time catching up. It was good." Another of our HFNL members recently encountered a young man during a Year of Faith presentation at Terra Sancta. He attended our men's group in February and was recently released from jail. He was very grateful for our ministry and reported, "I have been sober for 55 days and I read the Bible you gave me every day." He too now has a job. These men are a living testimony to our very important mission at the jail. We thank our Heavenly Father for the blessings He is working in their lives and for allowing us to be involved in their successes. To learn more about HFNL, please contact Tony Galles (348-2301) or Mary Sperlich (342-9343).
