Our parish, dedicated as St. John the Evangelist on November 27, 1941, is presently known as Saint Therese the Little Flower. We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. We celebrate our gifts: a strong loyal parish community and our Catholic bond of faith dedicated to service and love of the Church.

Our Stewardship Mission is to love God first and commit ourselves to be the heart, hands and feet of Christ in our community.

A PRAYER FOR EASTER EYES

My Lord Jesus, You have risen to new life! Give me new eyes with which to recognize your presence in the world around me. Sharpen my vision so that I see beyond the ordinary events of each day and into the extraordinary reality of your grace. Brighten my view of the world with renewed hope in the coming of your Kingdom. Soften my gaze so that I view others with the kind of tenderness and compassion you showed to so many. May each day of this Easter season provide glimpses of your glory. In your sacred name I pray. Happy Easter Folks!

We seem determined to have an eventful Lent and Easter, with the ashes of the Schroeder Fire still warm and the courageous work of the fire crews and emergency services fresh in our memory. There is so much gratitude to be expressed for sparing homes and lives. A picture of the white cross shrouded in smoke atop the ridge behind Blessed Sacrament Church caught the attention of the Facebook world and is a wonderful symbol for Holy Week.

It reminds us that the cross survives and is victorious in adversity. We carry the cross with Jesus and now we are victorious with Him.

I am very thankful for the ministers at the altar, musicians, our liturgical environment folks and all who have cared for the poor and the homebound during these days, and throughout the year.

I am also thankful for all of you who have so faithfully supported your church and your community, helping your neighbor in need. Because of your support for the poor St. Therese Church sent another $4000.00 to St. Vincent DePaul Society to help people with their identified needs. As we have been filling the church these last several weeks, it brings me great joy to welcome back faces that we haven't seen for awhile. I am reminded of the words of Pope St. John Paul early in his pontificate, "Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song."

Peace and Easter blessings,

Fr. Kerry Prendiville

Why Did Jesus Fold the Napkin? Why did Jesus fold the linen burial cloth after His resurrection? I never noticed this. The Gospel of John (20:7) tells us that the napkin, which was placed over the face of Jesus, was not just thrown aside like the grave clothes. The Bible takes an entire verse to tell us that the napkin was neatly folded, and was placed at the head of that stony coffin. Early Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. She ran and found Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. She said, "They have taken the Lord's body out of the tomb, and I don't know where they have put him!" Peter and the other disciple ran to the tomb to see. The other disciple outran Peter and got there first. He stopped and looked in and saw the linen cloth lying there, but he didn't go in. Then Simon Peter arrived and went inside. He also noticed the linen wrappings lying there, while the cloth that had covered Jesus' head was folded up and lying to the side. Was that important? Absolutely! Is it really significant? Yes! We need to understand a little bit about Hebrew tradition of that day: the folded napkin had to do with the Master and Servant, and every Jewish boy knew this tradition. When the servant set the dinner table for the master, he made sure that it was exactly the way the master wanted it. The table was furnished perfectly, and then the servant would wait, just out of sight, until the master had finished eating, and the servant would not dare touch that table, until the master was finished. Now if the master were done eating, he would rise from the table, wipe his fingers, his mouth, and clean his beard, and would wad up that napkin and toss it onto the table. The servant would then know to clear the table. For in those days, the wadded napkin meant, "I'm finished." But if the master got up from the table, and folded his napkin, and laid it beside his plate, the servant would not dare touch the table, because the folded napkin meant, "I'M COMING BACK!"

AND ONE MORE FUNNY ...

An oldie but a goodie.....

Ole and Clarence had quite a feud! They lived across the river from each other and had never met, yet the hard feelings between their families went back several generations. One day, while yelling at each other across the water, Ole promised that if he could ever get to the other side he was going to beat up Clarence. Time moved on, and transportation improvements happened. The government built a bridge from one side of the river to the other. AND OLE WAS READY!! He stormed across the bridge, ready to pummel his nemesis Clarence! Before long, he came slinking back home. Lena asked, "Vat happened???" Did you ALREADY beat up Clarence?!" "Vell, it's like dis!," replied Ole. "I got to dat bridge and dere vas dis sign dat said Clarence is 9'10"!!!!!"

Rachel's Corner

I feel clean, and with a desire to keep going forward. I feel like a woman who after so very much time, God extended His hand to me and picked me up. I am loved just as I am by Jesus, and now feel worthy in the eyes of God. Thank you, God, for filling me with peace inside and for having received my daughter with so much love, forgiving me and for teaching me to forgive others. -Testimonial
