Faithful Citizenship

"I believe that, yes, the times talk to us of so much poverty in the world and this is a scandal. Poverty in the world is a scandal. In a world where there is so much wealth, so many resources to feed everyone, it is unfathomable that there are so many hungry children, that there are so many children without an education, so many poor persons. Poverty today is a cry. We all have to think if we can become a little poorer, all of us have to do this. How can I become a little poorer in order to be more like Jesus, who was the poor Teacher?" Pope Francis, Meeting with Students of Jesuit Schools-Q&A, June 7, 2013. www.vatican.va

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

This coming Thursday is a Holy Day of Obligation – the Feast of the Assumption of Mary into Heaven. Of all the holy days that we have, this one is missed by more people than all the other holy days. The schedule of Masses at St. Therese is August 14 at 7 PM, August 15 at 7 AM and 7 PM. The parish of Saint John's in New Underwood mass time is 5 PM on August 15.

On August 18 at College Park we will have our Annual Parish Picnic. Please try to attend this yearly event and meet new members of our parish family. We especially would like to welcome two new people to our staff: Kathy Haselhorst is our new religious education coordinator and Randy Vette is our new youth ministry person.

Our parish is very grateful to Rita Dupres for her many years of dedication to the youth of our parish. She has decided to do other things. Our parish wishes Rita the best of everything.

Do you know a spouse, family member or friend who is open to the possibility of becoming Catholic?

Are you an adult that was baptized in a Catholic church but never received the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Eucharist?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) will begin for those who are considering joining the Catholic Church. The RCIA process begins with an inquiry period of a few months where people can learn the basics of the Catholic faith.

There is no commitment to join the Church during this period – it's rather an opportunity to ask questions and learn the truth about the Catholic faith.

For more information, contact the office at 342-1556.

WELCOME

THE WEEKLY FUNNY . . . from Father Bill

One day my Grandma was out, and my Grandpa was in charge of me. I was maybe 2 1/2 years old. Someone had given me a little 'tea set' as a gift, and it was one of my favorite toys. Grandpa was in the living room engrossed in the evening news when I brought him a little cup of 'tea', which was just water. After several cups of tea and lots of praise for such yummy tea, my Grandma came home. My Grandpa made her wait in the living room to watch me bring him a cup of tea, because (as he put it) it was 'just the cutest thing!' Grandma waited, and sure enough, here I came down the hall with a cup of tea for Grandpa, and she watched him drink it up. Then she said, (as only a Grandma would know), "Did it ever occur to you that the only place she can reach to get water, is the toilet?"

Thank You! – Thank You! – Thank You!

We look forward to another smashing, successful year!

THANK YOU to Beth Sand and the Altar Society for a successful Rummage Sale! Many hours of hard work went into it. Together, we made $2284! A quote to show how excellent everyone's work is:

“I wasn't able to help out this year due to other commitments, but I did get a chance to stop by and shop Thursday night! I have to say that our church really knows how to put on a rummage sale! The only thing I didn't spot was the “kitchen sink”! ☺ It is always so well organized and you ladies really out-do yourselves when it comes to friendly service...always a smile! Thanks for all you do behind the scenes! God Bless!” --Deanna Johnson

The Lord will come when we least expect him. Is he knocking now, asking us to serve as priests and religious?
(Luke 12:35-40) PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Am I waiting for the "right" time to become a good steward? Do I plan to share my time and talents "later"? Today's Gospel warns those who are procrastinating about stewardship to be prepared – "at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY... from Father Bill

A man calls home to his wife and says, "Honey I have been asked to go fishing at a big lake up in Canada with my boss and several of his friends. We'll be gone for a week. This is a good opportunity for me to get that promotion I've been wanting, so would you please pack me enough clothes for a week and set out my rod and tackle box. We're leaving from the office and I will swing by the house to pick my things up. Oh! And please pack my new blue silk pajamas." The wife thinks this sounds a little fishy but being a good wife she does exactly what her husband asked. The following weekend he comes home a little tired but otherwise looking good. The wife welcomes him home and asks if he caught many fish. He says, "Yes! Lots of Walleye, some Blue gill, and a few Pike. But why didn't you pack my new blue silk pajamas like I asked you to do?" The wife replies; "I did, they were in your tackle box."

Winning the Culture War To win any war, there are three things that you must know: that you are at war, who your enemy is, and what weapons or strategies can defeat him.

Acknowledging that our culture is clearly in crisis, Dr. Peter Kreeft shows us that the only weapon strong enough to defeat the demons of this age is saints. Above all, Dr. Kreeft assures us that victory is assured for those who hope in Christ, because good always triumphs over evil. Find this CD, and many others and

“Love One Another Even as I Have Loved You” – Human Community & the Last Seven Commandments

“All men are called to the same end: God himself. There is a certain resemblance between the unity of the divine persons and the fraternity that men are to establish among themselves in truth and love. Love of neighbor is inseparable from love for God” (CCC 1878). The last seven Commandments deal with our relationship with one another. Presenter: Jeff Hurd. AUG. 18, ST. CHARLES BORREMEO CHURCH, ST.FRANCIS, 2 P.M. CT; AUG. 21, TERRA SANCTA, RAPID CITY , 6:30 P.M. MT; Aug. 25 ST. JOSEPH CHURCH, Faith, 2 P.M. MT

THANK YOU!! For my family I want to extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone for all the prayers and generosity we have and continue TO RECEIVE during the last year and a half while I have battled Leukemia. I would like to update everyone on my progress. My last two bone marrow tests were cancer free so I am officially in remission and have already started on my maintenance phase which will last for two years. With that news my family and I were able to move to Vermillion SD where we will continue with our college education. I will have to travel to Rochester monthly for Chemo treatments but that seems like an easy thing to do at this point. Please know that without the prayers and support I received from you over the past year and a half I may not have survived. Adam Hockhausen

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

There I was sitting at the bar staring at my drink when a large, trouble-maker bully steps up next to me, grabs my drink and gulps it down in one swig. "Well, watcha' gonna do about it?" he says, menacingly, as I burst into tears. "Come on, man," the bully says, "I didn't think you'd CRY. I can't stand to see a man crying." "This is the worst day of my life," I say. "I'm a complete failure. I was late to a meeting and my boss fired me. When I went to the parking lot, I found my car had been stolen and I don't have any insurance. I left my wallet in the cab I took home. I found my wife with another man... And then my dog bit me. So I came to this bar to work up the courage to put an end to it all. I buy a drink, I drop a capsule in and sit here watching the poison dissolve; and then you show up and drink the whole thing! But, enough about me, how are you doing?"
