--- Notes From Father Bill ---

Many people worked very hard to make our parish picnic a success. I hope that you will have the opportunity to attend the picnic being held August 17 at College Park.

Many programs are starting or will be starting in the very near future. If anyone can be of assistance with our CCD program, please contact either Beth Sand or Randy Vette.

Kathy Haselhorst is leaving the area. She is getting married in September. Our parish thanks her for being the coordinator for the classes being held on Sunday mornings. Beth Sand will be taking her place.

Sister Joan told me not to mention that she is leaving the parish to be closer to the other members of her community. So... I will not mention that!!! More next week. (If I am still alive when she reads this!!!!)

Please add PETER KRAUSE & BEAU SCHUMACHER to your prayers

THE WEEKLY FUNNY ...from Father Bill

Two young engineers applied for a single position at a computer company. They both had the same qualifications. In order to determine which individual to hire, the applicants were asked to take a test by the department manager. Upon completion of the test, both men had each missed only one of the questions. The manager went to the first applicant and said, "Thank you for your interest, but we've decided to give the job to another applicant." "And why would you be doing that? We both got nine questions correct," asked the rejected applicant. "We have based our decision not on the correct answers, but on the question you missed," said the department manager. "And just how would one incorrect answer be better than the other?" the rejected applicants inquired. "Simple," said the department manager, "Your fellow applicant put down on question .5, "I don't know". You put down, "Neither do I."

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY ...from Father Bill

A very loud Texan Engineer was visiting Australia, and talking big about all of the large civil works in the USA that he was involved in. To be polite his Australian counterpart took him on a tour of some of Sydney's larger constructions. First he took him to Gladesville Bridge. The Texan exclaimed, "What's that?!" In reply the Australian said, "That's the Gladesville Bridge". "Hmmp" said the Texan, "How long and how many men did it take to build?" The Australian replied, "About 5 years with 1000 men." The Texan replied, "Well in Texas we would've done it in 2 years with 500 men." Next they went to the Sydney Opera House. "What's that?" asked the Texan. "That's the Sydney Opera House," was the reply. "Hmmp" said the Texan, "How long and how many men did it take to build?" The Australian replied, "About 10 years with 200 men". The Texan replied "Well in Texas we would've done it in 4 years with 200 men." By this stage the Australian was a little put out by the Texan's attitude so he decided to get some revenge, they walked around the Sydney Opera House and as they did the Sydney Harbor Bridge came into view. Immediately the Texan exclaimed, "Wow! What's that?" The Australian Engineer replied, "I don't know, it wasn't there yesterday."

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

A woman in her eighties made the evening news because she was getting married for the fourth time. The following day she was being interviewed by a local TV station, and the commentator asked about what it felt like to be married again at that age and would she share part of her previous experiences, since it seems quite unique the fact that her new husband was a 'funeral director.' After a short time to think, a smile came to her face and she proudly explained that she had first married a banker when she was in her twenties, in her forties she married a circus ring master, and in her sixties she married a pastor and now in her eighties, a funeral director. The amazed commentator asked her why she had married men with such diverse careers. With a smile on her face she explained, 'I married one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go.'

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry

This month we are continuing with our ministry members' testimonials for joining HFNL and this weekend we feature Tony Galles's testimonial. "My name is Tony Galles. I have been with Hope For New Life since its formation in December 2005. The Grace of God led me here through several workers in His vineyard. God was telling me "Visit the Imprisoned" for many years. The first Grace was reading the Living Faith Daily Devotional Booklet. The foundation had a prison ministry that I supported, so for years God put the idea in my mind that Rapid City needed a jail ministry. Fr. Matt Fallgren was my second Grace. One Sunday he mentioned from the pulpit that someone should start a jail ministry. For months this was on my mind. Then the third Grace appeared. Blessed Sacrament Parish we starting a jail ministry and asking for volunteers so at that moment I did not even hesitate. I jumped at the opportunity and here I am doing the work God called me to do. I have been involved in RCIA, Returning Catholics and Bible Study. This is by far the most fulfilling evangelization work in which I have been involved. In the Words of Jesus, "When you visit those in prison, you visit me." Mt 25:36 To learn more about the HFNL ministry please contact Bill Gradoville 341-2721 or Jennifer Shams 381-1118. You are also welcome to attend our monthly HFNL meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at Catholic Social Services at 6:30 pm.

CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

Jesus said to St. Faustina, "Say unceasingly this chaplet that I have taught you. Even the most hardened sinner, if he recites this Chaplet even once, will receive grace from my infinite Mercy. I want the whole world to know my infinite Mercy. I want to give unimaginable graces to those who trust in my Mercy."

All are invited to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy & the Rosary every Sunday at 3:00 p.m. in the chapel at Cathedral.

The Fourth Cup

Well-known Catholic theologian Dr. Scott Hahn explains Christ's Paschal Sacrifice on the cross as the fulfillment of the traditional fourth cup used in the celebration of the Jewish Passover meal. He draws a symbolic parallel to the Last Supper and Christ's death on Calvary.

Through his scholarly insights and important biblical connections, Mass will come alive for you as never before!

You will find this CD and other titles in the case in the front of the church. Check it out! I'm sure you'll see something you'll enjoy!
