Faithful Citizenship "The unbreakable bond between love of God and love of neighbor is emphasized. One is so closely connected to the other that to say that we love God becomes a lie if we are closed to our neighbor or hate him altogether. Saint John's words should rather be interpreted to mean that love of neighbor is a path that leads to the encounter with God, and that closing our eyes to our neighbor also blinds us to God. Deus Caritas Est (God is Love), #16" <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/vatican-statements-on-social-justice.cfm> Write to a family member telling them you love them. Calling all Disciples!

We are moving onward and upward with the Youth activities for next year and we need lots of help! We are looking for good and prayerful volunteers who want to invest in our youth and in the future of our Church. There are plenty of ways you can give your talents: we need leaders for discipleship groups, games, music, meals and hospitality, and more! We are all called to evangelize and build others up in Faith. Please prayerfully consider helping and let Christ's love for His children compel you! If interested in being more involved with the youth in any way or have any questions please contact us at 342-1556 ext. 12

Altar Society Funeral Chairpersons ~ AUGUST
 Chairperson: Linda Birgenheir Co-Chairperson: Margaret Feist

Do you, or do you know a spouse, family member, or friend who is open to the possibility of becoming Catholic? Are you an adult that was baptized in a Catholic church but never received the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Eucharist?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) will begin in late August for those who are considering joining the Catholic Church. The RCIA process begins with an inquiry period of a few months where people can learn the basics of the Catholic faith. There is no commitment to join the Church during this period – it's rather an opportunity to ask questions and learn the truth about the Catholic faith. For more information, contact the office at 342-1556.

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

There was a boy who worked in the produce section of a supermarket. One day, a man came in and asked to buy a half a head of lettuce. The boy told him that they only sold whole heads of lettuce. But the man replied that he did not need a whole head. So the boy said that he would go ask his manager about the matter. The boy walked into the back room and said, "There's some crazy guy out there who wants to buy only a half a head of lettuce." As he was finished saying this, he turned around to find the man standing right behind him. So he added, "And this gentleman wants to buy the other half." The manager ok'd the deal and the man went on his way. Later the manager called the boy in and said, "You almost got yourself in a lot of trouble earlier, but I must say that I was impressed with the way you got yourself out of it." "You think on your feet and we like that around here. Where are you from son?" The boy replied, "North Dakota, sir." Oh really? Why did you leave North Dakota?" asked the manager. The boy replied, "They're all just a bunch of floozies and hockey players up there." "Really," replied the manager. "My wife is from North Dakota!" The boy replied, "No kidding! What team did she play for?"
