Faithful Citizenship "Serving time in prison is a painful time, said the pope." Pope Francis insisted Jesus "teaches us to see the world through his eyes -- eyes which are not scandalized by the dust picked up along the way, but want to cleanse, heal and restore. He asks us to create new opportunities: for inmates, for their families, for correctional authorities, and for society as a whole." www.usccb.org (From www.rapidcitydiocese.org/family-life-ministries-social-justice/social-justice-commission)

== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

I am preaching a mission appeal at Holy Spirit Church in Annandale, Virginia this weekend for the mission work in the Diocese of Rapid City. I am invited to preach about the home missions and specifically ask for a donation for our diocese. I usually do one such appeal a year. It is a reminder for me that we also have a relationship to the Church in the missions. Perhaps you already make contributions to help the mission church overseas or in the Caribbean islands. We have been blessed here with help from Catholic Extension, The national Office of Black and Indian Missions, and the National Home Mission collection, making up part of the income driving our work in the Diocese of Rapid City.

The recent pastor letter from Bishop Gruss entitled Through Him, With Him, and In Him: a Spiritual Guide to the Diocesan Priority Plan, is a grand document that can be used in our parishes, but also in our personal relationship with God. Reading the document, praying with it, you may find direction for your life.

Peace, Fr. Kerry

JOY IS NOT IN THINGS, IT IS IN US.

CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS/CATECHUMENATE (R.C.I.A.)

If you fit any one of the following descriptions (or know someone who does), call us!

- anyone who wants to join the Catholic Church
- anyone who wants to consider entering the Church
- anyone who was baptized but never received the other sacraments
- anyone who simply wishes to inquire about Catholicism
- anyone Catholic who feels that they would like to review or increase their knowledge of the faith (and at the same time, act as a parish sponsor for an inquirer)

Our parish annually celebrates the beginning of a new journey into the faith for those interested in joining our Catholic family. This process of welcome into the Catholic Church is called the Catechumenate or the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (often identified by its initials – RCIA).

Join us Thursdays at 7 pm! Those taking part in the journey will be invited to explore the experience of God, faith, and religion as initiation team members and parish sponsors share the living experience of their faith. Please inform those whom you feel would be interested about this journey. It would be helpful if you offered to accompany them, at least to the opening sessions. Help us plan ahead if you know of someone. For more information, contact the office at 342-1556.

Attention high school students! If you fit this description, we are starting a NEW R.C.I.C. just for you!! So... if you are in high school and have not received the sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist, or Confirmation, please call the office today!!

A LITTLE LAUGH...

$5.37! That's what the kid behind the counter at Taco Bell said to me. I dug into my pocket and pulled out some lint and two dimes and something that used to be a Jolly Rancher. Having already handed the kid a five-spot, I started to head back out to the truck to grab some change when the kid with the Elmo hairdo said the hardest thing anyone has ever said to me. He said, "It's OK. I'll just give you the senior citizen discount." I turned to see who he was talking to and then heard the sound of change hitting the counter in front of me. "Only $4.68" he said cheerfully. I stood there stupefied. I am 56, not even 60 yet! A mere child! Senior citizen? I took my burrito and walked out to the truck wondering what was wrong with Elmo. Was he blind? As I sat in the truck, my blood began to boil. Old? Me? I'll show him, I thought. I opened the door and headed back inside. I strode to the counter, and there he was waiting with a smile. Before I could say a word, he held up something and jingled it in front of me, like I could be that easily distracted! What am I now? A toddler? "Dude! Can't get too far without your car keys, eh?" I stared with utter disdain at the keys. I began to rationalize in my mind! "Leaving keys behind hardly makes a man elderly! It could happen to anyone!" I turned and headed back to the truck. I slipped the key into the ignition, but it wouldn't turn. What now? I checked my keys and tried another. Still nothing. That's when I noticed the purple beads hanging from my rear view mirror. I had no purple beads hanging from my rear view mirror. Then, a few other objects came into focus: The car seat in the back seat, Happy Meal toys spread all over the floorboard, a partially eaten donut on the dashboard. Faster than you can say ginkgo biloba, I flew out of the alien vehicle. Moments later I was speeding out of the parking lot, relieved to finally be leaving this nightmarish stop in my life. That is when I felt it, deep in the bowels of my stomach: hunger! My stomach growled and churned, and I reached to grab my burrito, only it was nowhere to be found. I swung the truck around, gathered my courage, and strode back into the restaurant one final time. There Elmo stood, draped in youth and black nail polish. All I could think was, "What is the world coming to?" All I could say was, "Did I leave my food and drink in here?" At this point I was ready to ask a Boy Scout to help me back to my vehicle, and then go straight home and apply for Social Security benefits. Elmo had no clue. I walked back out to the truck, and suddenly a young lad came up and tugged on my jeans to get my attention. He was holding up a drink and a bag. His mother explained, "I think you left this in my truck by mistake." I took the food and drink from the little boy and sheepishly apologized. She offered these kind words: "It's OK. My grandfather does stuff like this all the time." All of this is to explain how I got a ticket doing 85 in a 40 mph zone. Yessss, I was racing some punk kid in a Toyota Prius. And no, I told the officer, I'm not too old to be driving this fast. As I walked in the front door, my wife met me halfway down the hall. I handed her a bag of cold food and a $300 speeding ticket. I promptly sat in my rocking chair and covered up my legs with a blanket. The good news was that I had successfully found my way home. & Happy Birthday Larry!! ☺

ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH...

John was feeling guilty, so he went to Confession. John: Forgive me Father, I have sinned. I stole some wood from a construction site. Priest: Well what did you do with the lumber my son? John: Well my son's wheelchair ramp was broken so I fixed it. Priest: At least you did good with it. John: Wait father, I had some wood left. Priest: What did you do with it? John: My dog was cold so I build him a house. Priest: I guess you still did good with it. John: Wait father, I had some wood left. Priest: What did you do with it? John: My car was cold, so I built it a two-car garage to keep it warm. Priest: That is a little out of hand... John: But father, I still had a little wood left. My wife had always wanted a bigger house, so I built a second floor for our house. Priest: Whoa! That's way too much!! You are going to have to make a Novena for penance. Do you know how to make a Novena? John: No, but if you have the plans I have plenty of wood.

ONE MORE LITTLE LAUGH...

A mother was concerned about her kindergarten son walking to school. He didn't want his mother to walk with him. She wanted to give him the feeling that he had some independence but yet know that he was safe. So she had an idea of how to handle it. She asked a neighbor if she would please follow him to school in the mornings, staying at a distance, so he probably wouldn't notice her. She said that since she was up early with her toddler anyway, it would be a good way for them to get some exercise as well, so she agreed. The next school day, the neighbor and her little girl set out following behind Timmy as he walked to school with another neighbor girl he knew. She did this for the whole week. As the two kids walked and chatted, kicking stones and twigs, Timmy's little friend noticed the same lady was following them as she seemed to do every day all week. Finally she said to Timmy, "Have you noticed that lady following us to school all week? Do you know her?" Timmy nonchalantly replied, "Yeah, I know who she is. That's just Shirley Goodnest and her daughter Marcy." "Shirley Goodnest? Who is she and why is she following us?" asked the little girl. "Well," Timmy explained, "every night my Mom makes me say the 23rd Psalm with my prayers, 'cuz she worries about me so much. And in the Psalm, it says 'Shirley Goodnest and Marcy shall follow me all the days of my life', so I guess I'll just have to get used to it!"
