Jesus, the Light of the World, as we celebrate your birth, may we begin to see the world in the light of the understanding you give us. As you chose the lowly, the outcasts, and the poor to receive the greatest news the world had ever known, so may we worship you in meekness of heart. May we also remember our brothers and sisters less fortunate than ourselves in the season of giving. Amen.

Faithful Citizenship "When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her." Inspired as it was by the Holy Spirit, Joseph's compassion for Mary's unexpected pregnancy is a model for us to follow. The USCCB has invited us to share in a year long initiative "Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service." Beginning on the Annunciation, March 25, 2020, this Year of Service will coincide with the 25th anniversary of Evangelium Vitae (The Gospel of Life), a landmark encyclical by Pope John Paul II. The Pro-Life Committee is developing educational, pastoral, and action-oriented resources for parish use, including reflections on the teachings of Evangelium Vitae, Evangelii Gaudium, and Laudato Si; prayers for building a culture of life; tools for documenting an inventory of local resources for pregnant mothers in need; and ideas and support for improving parish responses. More information about the initiative can be found at www.usccb.org/moms-in-need

When he discovered that Mary was with child, Joseph resolved to end their engagement with as little disgrace as possible. But obedient to the voice of God, he changed those plans and became instead the protector of the child Jesus and His mother Mary. God grant that I may be as open to the leading of the Holy Spirit!

A LITTLE LAUGH ...

"What did your mother do yesterday morning Vicky?"

"She done her Christmas shopping, ma'am."

"Done her shopping, Vicky? Where's your grammar?"

"She done her shopping as well, ma'am."

Dear Friends,

I must say I am so gratified by the recent election for the Parish Pastoral Council. The men and women who put their names forward for nomination gave the parish excellent choices on the ballot. And the parish had a difficult time choosing! The final tally was closely grouped showing all had excellent gifts to share. I would like to welcome on to the Pastoral Council Chad Carroll and Irene Lee. Anyone who is willing to serve on Council gets put on my speed dial, so thank you Linda and Will for stepping up.

Our outgoing Council President, Rita Dupres, has served with energy and vision. With her guidance and expertise, I have been helped immensely in my administrative role as your pastor. She helped me develop job descriptions, a new employee handbook, facilities manual and many other detail-oriented jobs that are not my forte. Her leadership kept us on task and responsive to the parish needs.

Jim Quintus stepped in by appointment to fill a vacated position on the Council and was asked to chair Building and Grounds. His experience and research helped us finish an unprecedented number of projects in his short two years on the Council. Jim is shy about elections and wanted to give others in the parish a chance to serve, but we know he is only a phone call away.

Thank you Rita and Jim!

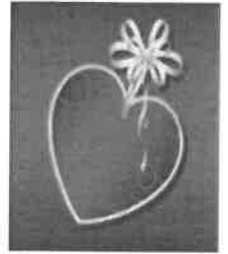

I will see you in the Christmas liturgies. Peace,

Fr. Kerry Prendiville

Thank you so very much for sharing your gifts and blessings for the Giving Tree, Angel Tree & all year 'round!

Our parish is so awesome!

Philippians 4:19 And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Gift idea...When you purchase GIFT CARDS TO WALMART/SAMS CLUB, SAFEWAY & FAMILY FARE from your church before you go shopping or give them as a gift, then a percentage comes right back to St. Therese AND a percentage goes to Church Response! How easy is that? GET YOURS TODAY!! After Mass in the Parish Center or in the office during the week!

Preparation of the Gifts – We now move into the Liturgy of the Eucharist. "At the Last Supper, Christ instituted the Paschal Sacrifice and banquet, by which the Sacrifice of the Cross is continuously made present in the Church whenever the Priest, representing Christ the Lord, carries out what the Lord himself did and handed over to his disciples to be done in his memory." [GIRM72] We recall that the whole Mass, the whole liturgy is a prayer of thanksgiving to the Father for what He has done for us through His Son. The word Eucharist, translated from the Greek word Eucharistien, (eh-oo-car-is-teen) means "Thanksgiving." The words and gestures in this part of the Mass reveal this reality. Presentation of the Gifts – In this part of the Mass, the altar and the gifts are prepared. It is a practical step in light of what will come after it. However, the prayers prayed aloud or quietly by the priest speak of the sacrifice to come. Biblically, the altar is the place where a sacrifice takes place and is offered to God. In the Catholic Mass, the altar is the place where the sacrifice of Jesus is re-presented in an unbloody way and offered to the Father. It is adorned with clothes that speak to the dignity of the action that will take place there. The vessels that will hold Jesus present to us under the form of the bread and wine are likewise placed on the altar. Bread and wine which will become Jesus truly and really present in the Eucharistic Prayer, are brought forward. Money is also collected and presented. The gift of our money is important in this offering. It expresses our thankfulness and gratitude for the many gifts and blessings we have been given. It communicates our grateful hearts. We give out of a sense of gratitude, and because Christ sacrificed himself for us, we desire to make our offering sacrificial as well. These gifts and the procession by some members of the congregation symbolize our desire to sacrifice ourselves with Jesus to God the Father. The priest receives them from the hands of the faithful and in this gesture we all give the gift of ourselves to Jesus so that we can truly participate in the sacrifice to come. As the altar and gifts are prepared, so we move deeper into this encounter with Jesus. The participation of the faithful either through song or in the spoken responses further signifies our willingness to enter the sacrifice of Jesus.
