Thank you Lord for giving me

The brand new year ahead

Help me live the way I should

As each new day I tread.

Give me gentle wisdom

That I might help a friend

Give me strength and courage

So a shoulder I might lend

The year ahead is empty

Help me fill it with good things

Each new day filled with joy

And the happiness it brings.

HAPPY HEART DAILY INSPIRATION

Welcome to St. Therese!

We are truly happy you joined us in the Celebration of the Mass!

== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

Dear Friends,

I write today, December 28, the memorial of the Holy Innocents, and reflect with gratitude that we live with religious freedom, carefully defended, and are relatively free of religious persecution. As Fr. Michael Oli celebrated the Mass, he prayed for the innocent villagers in Nigeria who were slaughtered on Christmas eve by Boko Haram. At least ten villages were attacked, with over 200 men, women, and children killed. The farmers who live in the middle belt of the country are constantly attacked and killed in ethnic and religious cleansing. Fr. Michael will be in the southern part of the country.

Peace on earth will still struggle to be a sign that Christ is in our midst; oppression and massacre will still be the threat that Jesus arrived amid, born helpless, weak, but loved. The risen Jesus is still enfleshed in his people suffering in Nigeria, Gaza, Ukraine, and countless other areas. We can help with our prayers and donations to relief agencies Catholic Relief Services and Aid to the Church in Need.

Fr. Michael and I are so grateful for your kindness, generosity, and thoughtfulness to us during this beautiful Christmas season. Let us together pray for divine intervention and mutual aid to come to the assistance of justice and peace. Emmanuel-God is with us!

Peace in Newborn Savior,

Fr. Kerry Prendiville

"I can't stand chess-nuts boasting in an open foyer."

Letter on *Fiducia Supplicans

December 22, 2023

Friday of the Third Week of Advent

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We have received a number of inquiries from the faithful concerning Fiducia Supplicans, a Vatican document published Monday on the topic of blessings. It specifically discusses the offering of a blessing by a priest to persons living in situations of unrepentant serious sin, such as same-sex sexual relationships, fornication, or adultery.

Blessings can have a liturgical or ritual expression (e.g., the blessing of the sick or the blessing of an altar), while others remain less formal (e.g., the prayer before meals or a parent's blessing of their children at bedtime). Blessings can be used to seek God's protection against evil, to set things aside for the worship of God (e.g., the blessing of a chalice), or to ask God's favor or mercy. Fiducia Supplicans describes the latter in the mode of the less formal expression of blessing.

Yet controversy has followed publication of this document, as some have hailed a supposed novel change in the Church's perennial teaching on sexuality, or praised it as a "step" towards such a change. These pronouncements, even celebrations, of a particular interpretation have been heard both within and outside the Church. It is important to understand that the document itself makes explicit that the Church's teaching on marriage and human sexuality is unchanged. Nor can it change. The teaching office of bishops and the Holy Father is at the service of, and has no authority over, the Deposit of Faith as found in Sacred Scripture and Tradition.

Our faith, received from God himself, holds that sexual activity is proper only to marriage between one man and one woman, and is ordered towards the deeper union of the spouses and the procreation and education of children (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church, nn. 2360-2372). This is part of God's beautiful design for the human person! The call to conversion in Christ is a call to joyfully embrace the truth of the moral law. "If you abide in my word, you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (John 8:31-32). The moral law is the pathway to freedom and happiness.

Some have further expressed concern that, as a practical matter, Fiducia Supplicans will have the impact of normalizing serious sin. Indeed it is troubling that some, even in the Church, may seek to use it for this purpose. Any misappropriation of the teaching office of the Church in a way that normalizes sin contributes to leading people further from Jesus' loving heart rather than closer to it, and must be repudiated. Thus we must have a clear understanding of what the Church teaches, even while the virtue of prudence helps us to know when and how to admonish sin in practice. There should be no ambiguity as regards this truth: the ministers of the Church have no power to bless sin. To do so

Discovering the Extraordinary during Ordinary Time ~ Saturday, Jan. 13 from 10 am to 3 pm

Jesus spent 91% of His life doing "ordinary things". Let's consider together "What is the Lord doing in my soul in the ordinary events of my life? This Reflection Day is an opportunity to explore some of the ordinary ways God breaks into our everyday lives. And consider this — Why does the Church give us Ordinary Time? Is it so that we can rest between Christmas and Lent, between Easter and Advent? Yes and No. Using Scripture, prayer, music, handouts, and stories, Sr. Jacque Schroeder, OSF, will lead our exploration of ways that "Ordinary Time" can help us enter more deeply into God's mysterious love before we plunge into Lent on Valentine's Day — join us at Terra Sancta Retreat Center. Suggested donation $30. Register <http://terrasancta.org/extraordinary>.

Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. During our New Year may our families "grow in wisdom and have the favor of God upon them." This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring Christmas to the hearts of the poor by assisting families, providing food, gifts and help with utility and rent bills. THANKS! Contact Rita Dupres at 605-381-4988 for more info. on our local SVP Society.
