Faithful Citizenship "9. Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula [prayer, fasting, and almsgiving] is almsgiving. It's about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it's about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God's unconditional love." Journey to the Foot of the Cross: 10 Things to Remember for Lent, www.usccb.org

THE WEEKLY FUNNY... from Father Bill

A little boy knocks at the door and tells the owner that something of his had found its way into her garage, and he wanted it back. The homeowner opened the garage and noticed two additions; a baseball and broken window sporting a baseball-sized hole. "How do you suppose this ball got in here?" she asked the child. Taking one look at the ball, one look at the window, and one look at the homeowner, the little boy exclaimed, "Wow lady! I must have thrown it right through that hole!"

FAMILY ROSARY: EVERY SUNDAY AT 7PM

EVERYONE WELCOME!!

Peter, James, and John wanted to build a "booth" for Jesus and just stay on the mountain where His transfiguration took place. But the Son of God, the chosen One, knew that He must instead keep moving toward His Crucifixion. We, too, must rise from worship and do what we can to hasten the coming of the Kingdom.

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

A soldier was asked to report to headquarters for assignment. The sergeant said: "We have a critical shortage of typists. I'll give you a little test. Type this," he ordered, giving him a pamphlet to copy and a sheet of paper, and pointing to a desk across the room that held a typewriter and an adding machine. The man, quite reluctant to become a clerk typist, made a point of typing very slowly, and saw to it that his work contained as many errors as possible. The sergeant gave the typed copy only a brief glance. "That's fine," he said; "Report for work at 8 tomorrow." "But aren't you going to check the test?" the prospective clerk asked. The sergeant grinned. "You passed the test," he replied, "when you sat down at the typewriter instead of at the adding machine."

An Update from Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry
The Power of Prayer

Prayer is a vital component of HFNL Ministry. Our group sessions always open and close with prayer. The men and women inmates who attend are encouraged to write their own prayer requests. These in turn are shared with the ministry members and all HFNL Prayer Partners. They are also posted in a special prayer book in gathering areas at Cathedral and Blessed Sacrament. A particular blessing we have received through this ministry is the opportunity to witness the incredible power of prayer. Over the years, we have heard how prayer has transformed hate into hope, how family members have been strengthened, that a new or renewed relationship with Jesus is the only source of solace in the loneliness of incarceration, how a very special pet found a caretaker, even how prayer saved a person from suicide. On occasion, an encounter with an inmate leaves us speechless but filled with immense joy and awe at the workings of the Holy Spirit. We invite you to seek out the prayers we post in area churches or to become one of our prayer partners (an anonymous way to join this ministry). For more information about Hope For New Life Jail Ministry, contact Tony Galles (348-2301) or Mary Sperlich (342-9343).

Year of Faith – March 2013 “God’s Work & Our Work” – Sacramental Economy & Liturgy

The Sacramental Economy “is the communication (or ‘dispensation’) of the fruits of Christ’s Paschal mystery in the celebration of the Church’s ‘sacramental’ liturgy” (CCC 1076). And “it is in the liturgy, especially in the divine sacrifice of the Eucharist, that ‘the work of our redemption is accomplished,’ and it is through the liturgy especially that the faithful are enabled to express in their lives and manifest to others the mystery of Christ and the real nature of the true Church” (SC 2).
