== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

Dear Friends,

We finished the Christmas season last week with the Baptism of the Lord. For me it was a beautiful season. I was just returned from a visit to my family in North Dakota, and they promised to visit me in the Spring. I am also grateful to the many gifts that you sent me over the holidays, food, treats, Fruit, gift cards and monetary gifts I pool together for vacation or getting a something fun. Why I still do not have a radio control car is a mystery!

Thank you too for the kind words you expressed in your cards and family letters.

I have been praying for a peaceful and graceful transition of power since the national elections. I think I have been joined by many who, having witnessed the attack on the Capitol, would like hostility and aggression to be replaced with understanding and dialogue in our public and private discourse. Left and Right live in the same neighborhoods, states, and country. We should act as though we live together and give each other the respect for our differences that allow for dialogue. I heard a parent tell a distraught child recently, "let's use our words."

Fair use of language will keep us from polarizing every event. Perhaps we might rethink the new label for angry out of control mobs- domestic terrorists. Let us ratchet it down and speak to one another. Christ will be with us in our endeavors if we do not shoo Him away.

Peace and Prayers,

~ Fr. Kerry Prendiville

A prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
