Faithful Citizenship "That the spirit of revolutionary change, which has long been disturbing the nations of the world, should have passed beyond the sphere of politics and made its influence felt in the cognate sphere of practical economics is not surprising. The elements of the conflict now raging are unmistakable, in the vast expansion of industrial pursuits and the marvelous discoveries of science; in the changed relations between masters and workmen; in the enormous fortunes of some few individuals, and the utter poverty of the masses; in the increased self-reliance and closer mutual combination of the working classes; as also, finally, in the prevailing moral degeneracy. ... It is no easy matter to define the relative rights and mutual duties of the rich and of the poor, of capital and of labor. And the danger lies in this, that crafty agitators are intent on making use of these differences of opinion to pervert men's judgments and to stir up the people to revolt." Pope Leo XIII, Rerum Novarum, on Capital and Labor, May 15, 1891, <http://w2.vatican.va> (From Diocesan Social Justice Commission www.rapidcitydiocese.org/WP/offices/social-justice-commission)

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

This coming week our country will recall our holocaust: Wade v Roe. This decision by the United States Supreme Court (5 to 4 – Justice Brennan, a Roman Catholic!) allowed abortion – legalized abortion in our country. The results of that decision has allowed over 50 million unborn children to never be born!!! We talk about Nazi Germany – what about Nazi America?!! On January 19, at 7 pm, Bishop Gruss will be here. He will give a talk in our church concerning this terrible decision by our Supreme Court. Please plan to attend.

Rest In Peace

THE WEEKLY FUNNY ...from Father Bill

The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday in Minneapolis of a yeast infection and traumatic complications from repeated pokes in the belly. He was 71. Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California Raisins, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The gravesite was piled high with flours. Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded. Born and bread in Minnesota, Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was not regarded as a very smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times, he still was a crusty old man and served as a positive roll model for millions. Doughboy is survived by his wife, Play Dough, three children: John Dough, Jane Dough, and Dosey Dough, plus they had one in the oven. He is also survived by his elderly father, Pop Tart. The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 min.

Speak Lord, your servant is listening.

Listening to the Lord requires silence. Make time each day to be quiet, so that you can hear God's call. (1 Samuel 3:3-10)

PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

Two priests died at the same time and met Saint Peter at the Pearly Gates. St. Peter said, "I'd like to get you guys in now, but our computer's down. You'll have to go back to Earth for about a week, but you can't go back as priests. What'll it be?" The first priest says, "I've always wanted to be an eagle, soaring above the Rocky Mountains." "So be it," says St. Peter, and off flies the first priest. The second priest mulls this over for a moment and asks, "Will any of this week 'count', St. Peter?" "No, I told you the computer's down. There's no way we can keep track of what you're doing." "In that case," says the second priest, "I've always wanted to be a stud." "So be it" says St. Peter, and the second priest disappears. A week goes by, the computer is fixed, and the Lord tells St. Peter to recall the two priests. "Will you have any trouble locating them?" He asks. "The first one should be easy," says St. Peter. "He's somewhere over the Rockies, flying with the eagles. But the second one could prove to be more difficult." "Why?" asks the Lord. "He's on a snow tire, somewhere in South Dakota."

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry A Blessed 2014 Christmas Jail Program

Praise God! We presented our 8th successful Christmas Program at the Pennington County Jail on December 21, 2014. There are many people we wish to thank for their help in making this year's program a success. First, we thank our own Cathie Harris who has orchestrated this event for HFNL for many years. Thank you to the following for their help with preparing 600 bags of candy for distribution to the inmates during the program: the Yantes family, the Shama family, Mary Sperlich, Cathie, Tony and Whit Harris, Paul Arthur, Carman Timmermann, Vesper Wright and grand daughters, Leonard Eberle, and Bill Gradoville and grand daughter. We also thank our 9 carolers Jill Leberknight, Leonard Eberle, Paul Yantes, Bill Gradoville, Mary Erz, Bev Cole, Vesper Wright, Sharen Lagrande and her son Chris Galiczewski; and our guitar players Peg Westrich and Lloyd Potter. We are grateful to all the parishioners who donated books, puzzles, and playing cards to the inmates. Once again this year, Destiny Four Square Church also participated in the program with 9 carolers. The following testimony of one of our HFNL ministry participants, Bill Gradoville, attests to the very moving and special experience this annual Christmas event represents for all of us: "I could see the inmates were touched by our presence at the jail, because I could see the gratitude in their faces. Perhaps many wondered why people they did not know would show such love and concern for them at Christmas time. For me, this is what Christmas is all about. We were the inmates' families and loved ones at this difficult time. We were the newborn Savior for them that Sunday night. I know I cried when I got home, because this is still a difficult time for me, as my wife has not been with my family for 16 months now. It was a source of great comfort for me to be able to bring some love, fun, and happiness to these inmates who are probably feeling pretty depressed being separated from their families at Christmas." To learn more about the HFNL ministry please contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721) or Jennifer Shama (381-1118). You are also welcome to attend our monthly HFNL meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at 6:30 pm. Due to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day and President's Day, group meetings on January 19 and February 16, will be held at 6:30 p.m., Blessed Sacrament Church room 107.
