Faithful Citizenship "No matter what happens to you, you must learn to forgive yourself and forgive other people," said Rwandan genocide survivor Immaculée Ilibagiza. "If I can forgive, so can you." ... According to Ilibagiza, it was through prayer she was able to forgive the men who killed her family and hunted her. ... One day, while meditating on the rosary, she remembered Jesus dying on the cross and crying out "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do" (Lk 23:34). "That was when I realized that my friends, neighbors, teachers, all of the people who were hunting us, did not know what they were doing, and me hating them didn't change one thing," she said. ... "If you are conflicted between being kind and being right, always choose being kind." --- Notes From Father Bill ---

Many people were very gracious in remembering my 30th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. Thank you very much for your kindness to me.

We are in a period in the Church Calendar called Ordinary Time. That means that each Sunday has a separate theme to pray about. But those weeks are anything but ordinary. There is nothing ordinary about our faith. Our faith is an extraordinary gift from God.

On March 5 we will begin the season of Lent. Hopefully we will not use that time doing ordinary things, but doing extraordinary things, like preparing for the greatest day the world has experienced – the day the tomb was found empty.

Please add SUSAN McFADDEN to your prayers

THE WEEKLY FUNNY ...from Father Bill

Little Max was getting to the smart aleck stage. Just before Christmas, the teacher gave the class a quiz. Little Max turned in a blank sheet of paper across which he scrawled, "Only God knows the answers to all these questions. Merry Christmas." His teacher's reply, written across the top of the paper said, "God gets an A. You get an F. Happy New Year."

The watchword today is "immediately." Peter and Andrew, James and John all respond immediately to the call of Christ. May I be as open to God's call and as ready to use my talents in His service as those first disciples were!

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

Groups of Americans were traveling by tour bus through Holland. As they stopped at a cheese farm, a young guide led them through the process of cheese making, explaining that goat's milk was used. She showed the group a lovely hillside where many goats were grazing. "These" she explained, "are the older goats put out to pasture when they no longer produce." She then asked, "What do you do in America with your old goats?" A spry old gentleman answered, "They send us on bus tours!"

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

The Presentation of the Lord is celebrated on February 2. This is also the World Day for Consecrated Life. Just as Jesus was presented in the temple, so have many men and women followed him by consecrating their lives to him, as religious sisters and brothers, monks and nuns, religious priests, hermits, consecrated virgins, in secular institutes. Let us remember to pray for all consecrated men and women at this time. *Send a card to someone you know who is consecrated this week, thanking them for the gift of themselves given to Christ and to His body, the Church, or invite them for dinner.
