Our parish, dedicated as St. John the Evangelist on November 27, 1941, is presently known as Saint Therese the Little Flower. We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. We celebrate our gifts: a strong loyal parish community and our Catholic bond of faith dedicated to service and love of the Church.

Our Stewardship Mission is to love God first and commit ourselves to be the heart, hands and feet of Christ in our community.

Peace and Blessings Friends,

On this Feast of Epiphany, having celebrated the Solemnity of Mary Mother of God, we acknowledge that God has sent his Son to dwell among us, and we pray that the gift of Mary's Son, the Prince of Peace, may draw peoples and nations into greater peace. Peace will come when all the children of God, following the will of the Father, do acts of kindness, justice, and compassion.

I want to thank you for your extraordinary kindness to me personally during the Holy Days, your many gifts and expressions of gratitude and support. I also want to thank you on behalf of the staff and Pastoral Councils of St. Therese and St. John the Evangelist for your support of our churches, especially our outreach to the poor. We continue to expand our footprint in service to those most in need.

Finally, I want to recommend you all to the prayers and motherly protection of Mary, Mother of God, reminding you of the words of St. Maximilian Kolbe, "Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did."

One last Merry Christmas, and have a Blessed New Year.

Fr. Kerry Prendiville

ONE MORE LITTLE LAUGH ...

Connie told Karen, "My grandson asked me, 'Where does poo come from?' I was a little uncomfortable, but I gave him an honest explanation. He looked a little perplexed, and stared at me in stunned silence for a few seconds and asked, 'And Tigger?'"

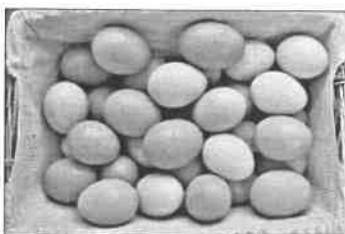

Rachel's Corner

There are many post-abortive women in our churches who live in silent torment. They are slowly self-destructing. They believe that if their friends knew what they had done, they would reject and condemn them. We must reach out in truth, love and mercy, and bring the good news of Christ's forgiveness and healing to these hurting women. If you or someone you know has experienced an abortion, we can help.

Plan to attend the next Rachel's Vineyard Retreat™ and experience the healing forgiveness of God. For more information, contact the national office at 877-467-3463 or www.rachelsvineyard.org. Contact Carol Kling for information about local retreats at 605-374-5639 or ckling@sdpplains.com or go to the diocesan website at www.rapidcitydiocese.org/Ministries/FamilyLife.htm.

DO YOU RAISE CHICKENS AND HAVE AN ABUNDANCE OF EGGS?

Do you have a group that would like to do something egg-specially special for Cornerstone?

Consider donating eggs to our 30 Main location. On an average morning, our kitchen uses 15 dozen eggs, not including the eggs needed for baking and other recipes.

Thanks for considering this need!

The Beatitudes: Standards for Stormy Seas

Please join us at Terra Sancta Retreat Center for a mini retreat with Bishop Steven Biegler of Cheyenne on January 21-22. The retreat will include three conferences on the Beatitudes; each conference will cover three different Beatitudes. First, we will reflect on the Beatitudes as a description of Jesus' spirituality, that is, how they express his relationship with the Father, his attitude toward and treatment of others, and his paschal perspective of the cross and resurrection. Intertwined with that reflection, retreatants will be invited to embrace the spirituality of the Beatitudes as the foundation of discipleship and apply them to their own lives. With these reflections, we will consider how the Beatitudes provide us with standards for stormy seas. By living the Beatitudes, we can navigate the trials of life and keep a paschal perspective that the Lord is with us in our suffering and leading us to unsurpassable eternal joy, which is what the word beatitude means. Retreatants will be offered Scripture passages for silent individual prayer. Register on-line at terrasancta.org/beatitudes
