We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. Our Stewardship Mission is to love God first and commit ourselves to be the heart, hands and feet of Christ in our community.

Faithful Citizenship Religious Freedom, the Heart of Human Rights 5. Religion expresses the deepest aspirations of the human person, shapes people's vision of the world and affects their relationships with others: basically it offers the answer to the question of the true meaning of life, both personal and communal. Religious freedom therefore constitutes the very heart of human rights. Its inviolability is such that individuals must be recognized as having the right even to change their religion, if their conscience so demands. People are obliged to follow their conscience in all circumstances and cannot be forced to act against it. Precisely for this reason, no one can be compelled to accept a particular religion, whatever the circumstances or motives.

Altar Society Funeral Chairpersons ~ JULY

Chairperson: Kathy Klemann Co-chair: Ginny Chandler

Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve disciples; and in the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent.

Help the needy without much time or effort! The 'We Care' & Scrip gift cards spend just like cash at many stores & benefit the church at no extra cost to you! If you're going to spend the money anyway, why not help a good cause while you're at it? ON HAND from MANY BUSINESSES plus we can order a variety of amounts from a bunch of other local places! Come see us after mass or in the office.

== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

Dear Parish Family,

I am usually the first person to know the news or the last. When I am the first it is frequently bad news. Good news arrives last or is even ignored today. Don't we all need to hear some good news? Jesus told us about the good news of helping others, "Don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing." The right hand is the hand that blesses. It is symbolic then of good deeds done in secret. And these good deeds are everywhere in our parish.

After mass I frequently see people go through the pews and put books back in racks, gather small things left behind, and tidy up the pews. They are never asked but simply respond to a perceived need. The baskets for Mommy's Closet, Church Response, Angel Trees, and more are regularly filled and the givers are unknown. There are many who involve themselves in social justice and service to Love Inc., Habitat for Humanity, Knights, Altar Society, Catholic Daughters, the North Rapid Neighborhood group, St. Vincent de Paul Society, the Mission meals, Summer Stretch service projects and so much more. They give their gift of time and talent without expecting anything in return. For these people are the antithesis of the saying, "let George do it."

Jesus also said in Matthew 5.16, "So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven." We are left to decide how to follow these two sayings of Jesus. I think they speak to our heart about humility with our talents and tactful discretion with our charity. We give and serve to BE with others in unity, so what we do reflects to God's glory and not our own.

If you are ever in doubt about when to shine, remember, we can always use some good news.

~ Fr. Kerry

"I have called you by name, and you are mine!" This week please pray about who God wants you to invite to join our parish, if a name comes to mind, invite them! Do you know someone who is not confirmed yet? Invite them! We are called to be intentional disciples, we are people of action not just words. Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults and Children opens the doors of our church wide - to preach and teach the gospel, to prepare all of God's children to baptism and the rest of our amazing sacraments! This week, invite one or two or three to RCIA beginning in September to come into full communion with our Church by Easter 2019!!!!

INFORMATIONAL MEETING IS AUGUST 28th AT 7 PM

ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH...

A Scotsman phones a dentist to enquire about the cost for a tooth extraction. "$85 for an extraction, Sir," the dentist replied. "$85!!! Huv ye no'got anythin' cheaper?" "That's the normal charge," said the dentist. "Whit about if ye didnae use any anesthetic?" "That's unusual, Sir, but I could do it... and knock $15 off." "Whit about if ye used one of your dentist trainees... and still without an anesthetic?" "I can't guarantee their professionalism.... and it'll be painful, but the price could drop to $40." "How about if ye make it a trainin' session? Ave yer student do the extraction with the other students watchin' and learnin'?" (It'll be good for the students, mull'd the dentist) "It's going to be very traumatic, but I'll charge you just $5." "Och, now yer talkin' laddie! It's a deal," said the Scotsman. "Can ye confirm an appointment for the wife next Tuesday, then?"

ONE MORE LITTLE LAUGH...

A social worker from a big city in Massachusetts recently transferred to the mountains of West Virginia and was on the first tour of her new territory when she came upon the tiniest cabin she had ever seen in her life. Intrigued, she went up and knocked on the door. "Anybody home?" she asked. "Yep," came a kid's voice through the door. "Is your father there?" asked the social worker. "Pa? Nope, he left afore Ma came in," said the kid. "Well, is your mother there?" persisted the social worker. "Ma? Nope, she left just afore I got here," said the kid. "But," protested the social worker, (thinking that surely she will need to intervene in this situation) "are you ever together as a family?" "Sure, but not here," said the kid through the door. "This is the outhouse!"

Mark McCormick will preside at this open-air Mass on the Terra Sancta campus — a great way to begin the final day of Hills Alive in Rapid City. Benches are available in the amphitheater — bring a chair for a more comfortable seat. Parking in the south or west lot . . . follow the arrows to the amphitheater located on the hillside west of the retreat center. Terra Sancta is located at 2101 City Springs Rd, Rapid City, SD.

The Children's Memorial Garden is a place where families can celebrate and remember their children who have returned to God. Currently, under construction on the Terra Sancta Campus in Rapid City, we are seeking sponsorships to help us make this dream a reality. Please visit our website to make a donation in any amount. If you'd like to remember a child who has returned to God, please visit our website <http://tsCMG.org>.
