Sister Marie Schwan, CSJ, was the spiritual director for many parishioners and other people in the area. She is now receiving chemotherapy for T-cell lymphoma. She left the area on July 16 because she does not know how she will react to treatment. She is now living at St. Joseph Center, 3430 Rocky River Drive, Cleveland, Ohio 44111-2997. I am sure she would love to hear from you.

The retreat at Denver was a great success. Many young people from our parish were able to attend due to the generosity of YOU!

THE WEEKLY FUNNY... from Father Bill

A husband and wife are shopping in their local supermarket. The husband picks up a case of Budweiser and puts it in their cart. "What do you think you're doing?" asks the wife. "They're on sale, only $10 for 24 cans", he replies. "Put them back, we can't afford them," demands the wife, and they carry on shopping. A few aisles further on, the woman picks up a $20 jar of face cream and puts it in the basket. "What do you think you're doing?" asks the husband. "It's my face cream. It makes me look beautiful", replies the wife. Her husband retorts: "So does 24 cans of Budweiser and it's half the price." He's still laying in Aisle 5.

Hello! Thank you for reading things in the bulletin, not just the jokes! ☺

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY... from Father Bill

Seems an elderly gentleman had serious hearing problems for a number of years. He went to the doctor and the doctor was able to have him fitted for a set of hearing aids that allowed the gentleman to hear 100%. The elderly gentleman went back in a month to the doctor and the doctor said, "Your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased you can hear again." To which the gentleman said, "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will five times!"

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

A man said, "We had a power outage at my house this morning and my PC, laptop, TV, DVD, iPad, ham radio and my new surround sound music system were all shut down. Then I discovered that my iPhone battery was flat and to top it off it was raining outside, so I couldn't play golf. I went into the kitchen to make coffee and then I remembered that this also needs power, so I sat and talked with my wife for a few hours. She seems like a nice person."

Am I willing to sell everything I own and follow the Lord? What is precious to me? (Matthew 13:44-52) PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry Bill Gradoville's Testimonial

This month we are continuing with our ministry members' testimonials for joining HFNL. The following is Bill's story: I first learned of HFNL jail ministry after attending an informational night at the Cathedral. I initially hesitated to join the ministry because, not being totally confident in all aspects of my Catholic Faith, how could I feel comfortable sharing it with others? I also told myself that the time commitment required for this ministry might be greater than my busy schedule would allow. So, I prayed to the Holy Spirit for guidance. The Holy Spirit reminded me that one of the Corporal Works of Mercy is to visit the imprisoned, and one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy is to comfort the afflicted. Jail ministry would fulfill both of these requirements, so I joined HFNL. Of all of the various things I have volunteered for, jail ministry has been the most satisfying and fulfilling to me. The Holy Spirit is definitely working in this ministry each and every Wednesday that I have been at the jail with the inmates we serve. The most satisfying thing to me is when an inmate thanks me for coming and being there for him or her. Our ministry is Jesus Christ to these men and women, who are searching for answers and hope. I believe our jail ministry is one important reason some of the men and women who are released never end up in jail again. We are making a difference. God is great! To learn more about the HFNL ministry please contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721) or Jennifer Shama (381-1118). You are also welcome to attend our monthly HFNL meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at Catholic Social Services at 6:30 pm.
