Faithful Citizenship Many of the poor live in areas particularly affected by phenomena related to warming, and their means of subsistence are largely dependent on natural reserves and ecosystemic services such as agriculture, fishing and forestry. They have no other financial activities or resources which can enable them to adapt to climate change or to face natural disasters, and their access to social services and protection is very limited. For example, changes in climate, to which animals and plants cannot adapt, lead them to migrate; this in turn affects the livelihood of the poor, who are then forced to leave their homes, with great uncertainty for their future and that of their children. There has been a tragic rise in the number of migrants seeking to flee from the growing poverty caused by environmental degradation. . . . Our lack of response to these tragedies involving our brothers and sisters points to the loss of that sense of responsibility for our fellow men and women upon which all civil society is founded. (Pope Francis, On Care for Our Common Home [Laudato Si. . .], no. 25) <http://www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/wha>

The Diocesan Social Justice Commission requests prayers for all unborn babies in danger of abortion. A sample prayer entitled Spiritual Adoption Prayer is as follows: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, with love for you I ask your intercession to protect the life of unborn children. May they all come to birth healthy and be a source of joy to their parents. For those in danger because of abortion, I adopt them as my own and pray for them and their mothers."

Altar Society Funeral Chairpersons ~ JULY

Chairperson: Kathy Klemann
Co-chair: Ginny Chandler

Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one's time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of cold water" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.

ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH...

The teacher asked Jimmy, "Who signed the Declaration of Independence?" Jimmy answered, "Don't know. Don't care." The Teacher told him to go home and find out the answer for tomorrow. So the next day the teacher asked Jimmy, "Who signed the Declaration of Independence?" Jimmy's answer was the same, "Don't know. Don't care." So the teacher told him to go home and find out the answer, and bring his father with him the next day. So Jimmy brought his father the next day. The teacher again asked Jimmy, "Who signed the Declaration of Independence?" Jimmy's reply was the same again, "Don't know. Don't care." That's when Jimmy's father says sternly, "Jimmy if you signed that thing, ya better fess up!"

ONE MORE LITTLE LAUGH...

NOT meant to be insulting to blondes: ☺ ...

A blonde was going to a soda machine and she arrived there just before a businessman coming to quench his thirst. She opened her purse and put in 50 cents, studied the machine a little and pushed a Diet Coke selection. Out came a Diet Coke which she placed on a counter by the machine. Then she reached in her purse again and pulled out a dollar and inserted it in the machine. Studying the machine carefully, she pushed the button for Coke Classic. Out came a Coke Classic and 50 cents change. She immediately took the 50 cents and put in in the machine, studied it for a moment and pushed the Mountain Dew button. Out came a Mountain Dew. As she was reaching into her purse again, the businessman who had been waiting patiently for several minutes now spoke up. "Excuse me, miss, but are you done yet?" The blonde looked at him and indignantly replied, "Well, duhhhh! I'm still winning!"

He was loved and admired by people of all faiths as he tackled the important topics of that time. His message is just as relevant today and we are blessed to have recordings of those broadcasts which are aired weekly on Real Presence Radio. Hope For New Life (HFNL) Ministry

Celebrating the 11th Year of Our Jail Ministry

We thank you for your prayers on behalf of HFNL Jail Ministry. In July, we celebrate the 11th year of our jail visits. Again, we thank Our Lord for this blessing and mission. Below, our ministry shares a special prayer with you. We pray this at the start of each of the four jail groups we conduct on Wed. evenings: A Daily Prayer for Justice and Mercy

Pause before you begin to pray. Hear the words of Jesus speak to you: "I was in prison and you visited me..." (Matthew 25:36) Jesus, with the Father and the Holy Spirit...Give us your compassion for those in prisons, jails, and juvenile detention centers. Mend in mercy the broken in mind and memory. Soften the hard of heart, the captives of anger. Free the innocent, parole the trustworthy. Awaken the repentance that restores hope. May prisoners' families persevere in their love. Jesus, heal the victims of crime. They live with the scars. Lift to eternal peace those who die. Grant victims' families the forgiveness that heals. Give wisdom to lawmakers and to those who judge. Instill prudence and patience in those who guard. Make those in prison ministry bearers of your light. For all of us are in need of your mercy! Amen
Your faith life is a preparation for something better to come. God has a definite plan for you, far beyond what you can imagine now. You will find God's mission for you if you try to do His will. Perhaps, serving our ministry just might be that mission. To learn more about HFNL, please contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721). You are also welcome to attend our monthly HFNL business meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at Catholic Social Services at 6:30 pm.

Fortnight for Freedom

Each year the USCCB strives to highlight the importance of defending religious freedom. The Fortnight for Freedom is from June 21—the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More—to July 4, Independence Day. In this time of increasing polarization in our culture, we can contribute to a better understanding of religious freedom in a way that respects all people. Enclosed please see a short guide which aims help Christians speak with friends and neighbors about religious freedom and work to clear up misconceptions about it. We are called to follow Christ as missionary disciples by seeking the truth, serving others, and living our faith in all that we do. Let us take a few moments each day this week to pray, reflect, and take action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad.
