Pastor: Rev. Kerry Prendiville

Deacons: Rev. Mr. Charles Rausch

Our parish, dedicated as St. John the Evangelist on November 27, 1941, is presently known as Saint Therese the Little Flower. We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. We celebrate our gifts: a strong loyal parish community and our Catholic bond of faith dedicated to service and love of the Church.

Our Stewardship Mission is to love God first and commit ourselves to be the heart, hands and feet of Christ in our community.

THANK YOU GOD

Thank you God for giving me another day, another chance to become a better individual, another chance to give and experience love. Thank you God for giving me health, for the food you provide, for the awareness you have awakened in me. Thank you for the energy that feeds my soul, the sun that warms our bodies and the air that fills our lungs. Because of you I believe in the good without the bad and the ugly, because of you I am learning to love and accept myself, because of you I believe in believing. My source, stay connected to me today and always, for I need you in order to fulfill my spiritual tasks. God, show me how to love myself, to be able to love others. Help me become the type of person that I would like to befriend, help me forgive myself and forgive others. I thank you God for giving me another day, another unused opportunity to do it right. Keep us all close to you and listen to our prayers. Amen.

Faithful Citizenship The self-giving aspect of breast feeding is just one of the ways motherhood is heroic. The Church has consistently supported breastfeeding and recognized its natural place in Christian motherhood. Even Pope Francis has chimed in, telling a journalist about a young mother and infant who had come to a recent general audience: "She was shy and didn't want to breast-feed in public, while the pope was passing," Francis recalled. "I wish to say the same to humanity: give people something to eat! That woman had milk to give to her child; we have enough food in the world to feed everyone." How does your workplace or church support mothers in this most essential act of motherhood? Annual FALL FESTIVAL is September 29th!

"The harvest is rich," Jesus tells the 72 in today's Gospel, "but the workers are few." The situation is the same today. How can I help with God's harvest? Am I called into the field? Am I one who could provide food or shelter or wages to those who toil in the fields of the Lord?

Sacred Relics of The Saints: Treasures of The Church Blessed Sacrament Church presents a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Friday, July 12 at 7 pm.

Father Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with a very special Vatican collection of over 150 relics, some as old as 2000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. In addition, a portion of the veil of Our Lady, as well as one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. You will be able to examine and venerate each relic. In the church's history many miracles and healings have been worked in the presence of relics, and many have been healed through this ministry. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession.

AND ONE MORE LAUGH...

The teacher asked Jimmy, "Who signed the Declaration of Independence?" Jimmy answered, "Don't know. Don't care." The Teacher told him to go home and find out the answer for tomorrow. So the next day the teacher asked Jimmy, "Who signed the Declaration of Independence?" Jimmy's answer was the same, "Don't know. Don't care." So the teacher told him to go home and find out the answer, and bring his father with him the next day. So Jimmy brought his father the next day. The teacher again asked Jimmy, "Who signed the Declaration of Independence?" Jimmy's reply was the same again, "Don't know. Don't care." That's when Jimmy's father says sternly, "Jimmy if you signed that thing, ya better fess up!"

Youth Mental Health First Aid is designed to teach parents, family members, caregivers, teachers, school staff, peers, neighbors, health and human services workers, and other caring citizens how to help an adolescent (age 12-18) who is experiencing a mental health or addictions challenge or is in crisis. July 23 from 8am to 5pm Youth Mental Health First Aid is primarily designed for adults who regularly interact with young people. The course introduces common mental health challenges for youth, reviews typical adolescent development, and teaches a 5-step action plan for how to help young people in both crisis and non-crisis situations. Topics covered include anxiety, depression, substance use, disorders in which psychosis may occur, disruptive behavior disorders (including AD/HD), and eating disorders. For more information about the course see <https://www.mentalhealthfirstaid.org/take-a-course/course-types/youth/> If you would like to attend, please register with Bryan Satterwhite, the Clinical Director of Wellfully at bryan.satterwhite@wellfully.org by July 10th.
