Faithful Citizenship "Economic and social policies as well as organization of the work world should be continually evaluated in light of their impact on the strength and stability of family life. The long-range future of this nation is intimately linked with the well-being of families, for the family is the most basic form of human community. Efficiency and competition in the marketplace must be moderated by greater concern for the way work schedules and compensation support or threaten the bonds between spouses and between parents and children. A WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

A young girl was attending her first wedding, watching the proceedings with interest for a while before growing restless. The groom stood at the altar as six bridesmaids walked slowly up the aisle, one by one. Soon, the girl leaned over to her mom and whispered, "Why doesn't he just hurry up and pick one?"

Though her sins were many they were forgiven because she showed great love. Do we show great love? Do we have the courage to be counted among those who follow Jesus? (Luke 7:36-8:3) PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

During a play date, a mother checked on her daughter and friends and overheard them playing wedding. The vows went like this: "You have the right to remain silent, anything you say can and will be held against you, you have the right to an attorney. You may kiss the bride."

An elderly lady asked the priest, "Father, what happens when you die?" Father replied, "Well the first thing is..., you'll realize you didn't."

And ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

After church one Sunday, a young boy walked up to the pastor. "Pastor," he said, "I heard you say in church that our bodies came from the dust." "That's right, son, I did." "And didn't you say that when we die, our bodies go back to dust?" "Yes, I'm glad you were listening," the pastor replied. "Why do you ask?" "Well I think you better come over to our house right away and look under my bed," the boy said, "'cause there's someone either coming or going!"

Don't ask the Lord to guide your footsteps unless you are willing to move your feet.
