Pastor: Rev. Kerry Prendiville

Assoc. Pastor: Rev. Michael Oli

Deacons: Charles Rausch & Don Moore

Our parish, dedicated as St. John the Evangelist on November 27, 1941, is presently known as Saint Therese the Little Flower. We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. We celebrate our gifts: a strong loyal parish community and our Catholic bond of faith dedicated to service and love of the Church.

Our Stewardship Mission is to love God first and commit ourselves to be the heart, hands and feet of Christ in our community.

Fr. Michael's Memo

Time has actually changed! Tempus mutantur et mutamur cum illis! (Times change and we change with them). Some Christians are yet to return to Church, thanks to Covid 19 that brought a rapid decline to Church attendance. Prior to Covid, there was a serious decline to vocation to priesthood. Our diocese, as well as our parish, St. Therese, are greatly affected in all directions. How do we re-arrange ourselves and the entire diocese to meet the new challenges? There must be some changes. There must be some arrangements and alliances in order to respond to the new realities. Flourishing Families Meeting is a grassroots consultation on how we can organize ourselves as a parish and as a diocese. Some individuals have been representing our parish in these meetings already. We are all invited to meet as a parish family group to hear from, and contribute towards, the strategic planning. The St. Therese Parish family meetings have been scheduled for June 21st and 28th, 2023. (6.30pm @ main parish hall). Come and be informed and contribute to our parish plan!

Every bird flies with two wings, as the union of a man and a woman form a family. Last month we celebrated our Mothers; today we are celebrating our Fathers. The role of a father in the family cannot be over emphasized. They are like the pillars on which the weight of the family lay. We respect our fathers as well as appreciate them. Nobody will be like my father; he was so energetic that we looked forward to playing with him; likewise, nobody will be like your father! Fathers extend those unique roles to the Body of Christ, the Church. Exodus 20:12 God commands us to honor our father and mother, so that our life will be long. We want to use this singular opportunity to appreciate all Fathers here in the Church especially those who think they are less appreciated. There is always a special reward for fathers here and much more in Heaven.

God bless you always,

~ Fr. Michael Oli

ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH ...

I don't like when all the silverware is dirty and I'm down to using the giant decorative fork that hangs on the wall.

CHECK THIS OUT BEFORE YOU GO SHOPPING!!

What ARE We Care gift cards? They are regular store gift cards you use when you purchase groceries & other items from the participating stores. They are used the same as cash.

Why should I use them? A percentage of each gift card goes to Church Response and a percentage to St. Therese Church to help the needy. ~It's easy!!! ~It doesn't cost you anything!! ~They make a great gift! ~ You're shopping there anyway!!

Where do I purchase them? After weekend Mass (4:30 Sat. & 9 am Sun.) in the Parish Center or in the office during the week.

How can I help? ~Purchase gift cards ~Sell them after Mass
Available in a variety of denominations for Wal-Mart/Sam's Club, Safeway, & Family Fare.

Novena For Diaconate Ordination

— From the Office of the Permanent Diaconate to be prayed June 20-28

Almighty God, giver of every grace, who apportion every order and assign every office, who remain unchanged, but make all things new, send your Holy Spirit into our midst to make our brothers preparing for ordination to the diaconate ready to offer themselves in the ministry of the word, of the altar, and of charity, servants to all.

Grant them wisdom when they are unsure, knowledge when they are afraid, counsel when they are confused, fortitude when they are fragile, understanding when they are troubled, piety when they are indifferent, and fear of you when they are proud.

Help them to receive the Gospel of Christ: convince them to believe what they read; train them to teach what they believe; strengthen them to practice what they teach.

Hear the prayers of all your faithful servants and in the eternal charity that you have shown us, draw us all to that heavenly kingdom where all are made perfectly one at the eternal banquet of Christ, the Good Shepherd and Eternal King.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

St. Therese Prayer

St. Therese, the Little Flower, please pick me a rose from the heavenly garden and send it to me with a message of love. Ask God to grant me the favors I ask, I thee implore, and tell Him I will love Him each day more and more.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

This week we celebrated the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

This long-standing devotion in the Church takes the physical heart of Jesus as representation of His Divine Love for humanity and emphasizes the unmitigated love, compassion, and long-suffering of the heart of Christ towards humanity. During the National Eucharistic Revival we are invited to pray this prayer of St. Peter Julian Eymard, which beautifully connects Jesus' Sacred Heart to His presence in the Eucharist:

O my God, in a spirit of adoration, thanksgiving, reparation and petition,

I offer you the actions and sufferings of this day in union with the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, in order to render to that adorable Heart dwelling among us, the debt of justice and love due to his august Presence, and moreover to offer to your Divine Majesty through him, with him and in him the glory that he himself renders you here on earth.

Lastly, I make this offering to obtain by means of that Almighty Mediator, peace for the Church, salvation for our country and all the other graces for which we call on you. Amen!

Rachel's Corner

"The Lord manifests Himself to those who stop for some time in peace and humility of heart. If you look in murky and turbulent waters, you cannot see the reflection of your face. If you want to see the face of Christ, stop and collect your thoughts in silence, and close the door of your soul to the noise of external things." –St. Anthony of Padua- feast day, June 13.

Join us on a Project Rachel's® retreat and begin the work of God clearing the murky waters that appeared after the loss due to an abortion decision. He wants you to learn to see yourself as He sees you. Our next retreat is Oct. 6-8.

"Because even when it is celebrated on the humble altar of a country church, the Eucharist is always in some way celebrated on the altar of the world. It unites heaven and earth. It embraces and permeates all creation." - Ecclesia de Eucharistia, April 17, 2003

Are you called to be a Vincentian?

As members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, we are not simply "volunteers." Rather, ours is a vocation. A vocation is more than a simple set of activities, or membership in a club. The word itself is from the Latin root vocāre, meaning to call. Our vocation is a call from God, a sacred invitation to follow a pathway towards the perfection that He wishes for us. It is subordinate to the vocation shared by all lay Catholics; the call to order all of our temporal affairs according to the plan of God. [Lumen Gentium, 31] The Vincentian vocation, then, is more than the sum of the actions we take, but that we taken them for love alone. It is more than Conference meetings, and more than Home Visits. It is "a vocation for every moment of our lives." [Rule, Part I, 2.6] It is the means by which we pursue the integration of life that Pope Saint John Paul II describes. [Christifidelis Laici, 59] If you are a Vincentian, it is because God called you here. You may not have recognized His voice at the time; His words may have come to you from another Vincentian. But it was God who called you here, the same God who calls, again and again, asking for your help; asking for a rent payment, an electric bill, a listening ear, and an open heart. You may not recognize His voice every time, but when He calls you, you answer, and you in turn pass along His call to the neighbor by your wordless witness in living your faith, and loving the neighbor as yourself. When the tasks seem daunting, we follow St. Vincent's advice, remembering that in responding to our vocation, "our Lord will be [our] guidance and [our] guide and [we] can do all things with Him." [CCD 1:589] This is, as Frédéric put it, "the sublime vocation God has given us." [Letter 90, to Currier, 1835] It is the vocation to which God has called us, the vocation in which we are blessed to encounter Him, the vocation that each and every one of us should be offering "to all those who seek to live their faith loving and committing themselves to their neighbor in need." [Rule, Part I, 3.1] It is certainly true that all of our actions as Vincentians are voluntary, but volunteering is something one does; Vincentian is something we are by virtue of our sublime vocation.
