In today's Gospel, the disciples suggest that Jesus disperse the crowd so that they might individually seek food and lodging. The miracle of the feeding of the five thousand is Jesus' powerful reminder that when we share our gifts in His name there is always more than enough!

Dear Friends,

This weekend I am at my 46th high school reunion. We have only had two other reunions and one was an all-school twenty years ago. I am really looking forward to seeing old friends and hoping everyone makes a great effort to attend. I imagine we will be sharing photos on our smart phones, swapping our readers as we share our stories. I think I have fared well in the progress department. Yet I am sure that there will be many there far techier than I. However, I would like to let you know some of the ways tech is helping our mission here at St. Therese the Little Flower.

Among the spate of improvements, we are working on this summer is the improved Wi-Fi access in the basement. This will assist those who volunteer to have better mobile phone reception and to use their smart phones to host classes and presentations. We have a public Wi-Fi that you are welcome to use. Any who are new to the parish, should know that we have electronic donation buttons on our website for St. Therese and for St. John parishioners or guests to arrange planned, monthly giving or one-time gifts. We periodically put other special collections on the website as well.

Eagle-eyed parishioners will note that the gable ends of the office and rectory are recently replaced. We hope to start work this summer on a refurbished sprinkler system for our lawn, and additions to serve the north and west sides of the property. With the wide variety of tree species, we hope to encourage the neighborhood to continue to include trees and lawns in their home plans.

Finally, if you have never done a Eucharistic Procession, you still have time to get to Cathedral by 4 pm on Sunday the 19th for the procession to Memorial Park, as we begin the three-year Eucharistic Revival, belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Peace to you all,

Fr. Kerry Prendiville
