Prayer for the Year of the Eucharist

My dearest Jesus, truly present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, in this Most Blessed Sacrament, Thank you for coming in the form of bread and wine, in your great desire to bring me into union with you. Strengthen my faith in you, fortify my hope in you, and deepen my love for you. Increase my hunger for you in the Most Holy Eucharist. Help me to submit my heart to you and surrender completely my whole life to you. Have mercy on me, transforming my life by your most Holy Body and Blood. In this Year of the Eucharist, increase my longing for you, that I may seek you with my whole heart, and receive you with love and joy in this your Most Blessed Sacrament. Amen.

Faithful Citizenship Religious Freedom Week June 22-30

Since 2017, over 700,000 Rohingya fled Myanmar as their villages were burned, women raped, and men killed in what a United Nations official has termed "genocide." Many refugees are crowded into camps in Bangladesh, while others have boarded flimsy boats going to Thailand, Malaysia, and Indonesia, where their fate is uncertain. They are being pressured to return but what guarantees are there that they will be treated with dignity and as equal members of society by a government that has declared them to be "stateless"? The Catholic Church in Myanmar has worked actively to mediate between the Buddhist majority and the Rohingya. Pope Francis visited Myanmar and Bangladesh in late 2017. At an interreligious and ecumenical meeting in Dhaka, he said, "We all are images of God, including the Rohingya," and he went on to say, "your tragedy is very difficult, but it has a place in our hearts."

Faithful Citizenship As we celebrate the opening of the Year of the Eucharist, we are also called to recognize that in the Eucharist, all are equal. Rich or poor, young or old, abled or disabled all kneel together in front of our Lord in the Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. United with our Lord in the Eucharist, we are better able to love our neighbor, and to serve him out of a love for our Lord. Jesus calls all of us to his table.

In today's Gospel, the disciples suggest that Jesus disperse the crowd so that they might individually seek food and lodging. The miracle of the feeding of the five thousand is Jesus' powerful reminder that when we share our gifts in His name there is always more than enough!

Dear Friends,

This Lord's Day we commence the Holy Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Bishop Gruss and which will culminate on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, and will conclude on that same Solemnity, Sunday, June 14, 2020. Bishop Gruss said in announcing the Holy Year on Divine Mercy Sunday, "We must remember that we are never alone because through the humble signs of bread and wine, changed into his body and blood, Christ walks beside us as our food for the journey, strengthening us to become, for everyone, witnesses of love and hope for the world."

Most of our outreach and education will be directed to better understand the mystery of our encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist. Through adult formation and scripture studies to our religious education and Lifeteen/Edge nights, our energies will go to deepening our love for the Lord.

In this Holy Year of the Eucharist I hope that the reception of the Lord in the Eucharist will help each of us live the Eucharist, bring Christ to our families and our community. The Eucharist, lived well, will draw others to Christ. People who have no formal faith may walk into our church and feel the Real Presence of Christ in the tabernacle. We are living tabernacles!

Peace in Christ, Fr. Kerry Prendiville

ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH...

Two gas company servicemen were out checking meters. They parked their trucks at one end of the alley and began working their way to the other end. At the last house, a woman looked out the window and watched them as they worked. When they finished the meter check at her house, one man challenged the other to a race back to the truck. As they came running up to the truck, they realized the woman from the last house was huffing and puffing right behind them. They stopped and asked her what was wrong. Gasping for breath, she replied, "When I see two gas men running as hard as you two were, I figure I better run, too."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Peter's Pence Collection is an opportunity for the Church around the world to stand in solidarity with those who suffer and are marginalized. Our brothers and sisters in Haiti, for example, have faced difficult challenges as they rebuild from the 2010 earthquake and then Hurricane Matthew in 2016. Buildings have been destroyed, and many communities have struggled to rebuild in the wake of these natural disasters.

But your generosity to the collection provides much-needed support for Haiti. Pope Francis calls each of us to "respond with faith and charity" and to see in each person "a human being with a dignity identical to my own, a creature infinitely loved by the Father, an image of God, a brother or sister redeemed by Jesus Christ" (Apostolic Exhortation Gaudete et Exsultate, no. 98). When you support the collection, you affirm the dignity of our brothers and sisters in Haiti and around the world. Your contributions help Pope Francis respond in our name with efforts of mercy and grace.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection as an act of mercy and charity. Join our brothers and sisters in faith around the globe to help Pope Francis reach the most marginalized in our world. Thank you, and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely in the love of Christ,

+ Robert D. Gruss
