== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

On June 29 the Church celebrates the feast day of Sts. Peter & Paul. As early as the year 258, there is evidence of an already lengthy tradition of celebrating the solemnities of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry, and martyrdom there. Our Holy Father Francis typically has a Mass that day when he blesses the Pallia for the new Archbishops appointed the year before. The Pallium is a white wool vestment, worn around the neck, with three crosses on it.

In a sermon in the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Sts. Peter and Paul: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith."

The Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul this year will be ordination day for six permanent deacons, and Robert Kinyon, son of Jim and Lisa Kinyon, who will be ordained to the transitional Diaconate. It will be a day of great rejoicing! The whole diocese looks forward to their contribution to the life of the Church. You are all invited to the ordination Mass that evening. Please keep Robert and all the men in your prayers as they make proximate preparation for ordination.

Peace, Fr. Kerry Prendiville

In the Gospel today, we hear Jesus say: "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." This week, know that you will bring hope to the poor by your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Contact

Rita Dupres at 605-381-4988 for more info. on our local SVDP Society.

My God, I offer You all my actions of this day for the intentions and for the glory of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I desire to sanctify every beat of my heart, my every thought, my simplest words and works, by uniting them to Its infinite merits. I wish to make reparation for my sins by casting them into the furnace of Its merciful love. My God, I ask of You, for myself and for those whom I hold dear, the grace to fulfill perfectly Your holy will to accept for love of You the joys and sorrows of this passing life, so that we may one day be united together in heaven for all eternity. Amen.
- Saint Therese of Lisieux, "The Little Flower of Jesus"

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Entering more fully into the Mass

All prayer, the Catechism teaches us, is God's thirst encountering our thirst; "God thirsts, that we may thirst for Him." (CCC 2560) The opening prayer of the Mass is called the "Collect." Ideally, all of our individual desires and prayers are collected by the priest and presented to the Father. This prayer is always structured according to a very ancient pattern. First, we address God with one or more of His many titles. Next, we remember something He has done (remembering is an ancient, biblical form of prayer). On the basis of what we have remembered, we ask for something. And finally, we end by stating that we are asking the Father, through the Son and in the unity of the Holy Spirit which lays out for us the pattern of our prayer throughout the whole Mass. Consider taking a few minutes before Mass to read through this brief prayer and ask yourself, "What desires and prayers does this prayer call to mind in my own heart?" Offer those answers to God as the priest prays the opening prayer. In doing so, your mind, heart, body and soul will be behind and in your "Amen", allowing your whole self to enter into worship today.

Rachel's Corner

"The Lord manifests Himself to those who stop for some time in peace and humility of heart. If you look in murky and turbulent waters, you cannot see the reflection of your face. If you want to see the face of Christ, stop and collect your thoughts in silence, and close the door of your soul to the noise of external things." -St. Anthony of Padua- feast day, June 13.

Join us on a Project Rachel's® retreat and begin the work of God clearing the murky waters that appeared after the loss due to an abortion decision. He wants you to learn to see yourself as He sees you. Our next retreat is Oct. 6-8.

ONE MORE LITTLE LAUGH ...

Little Johnny's new baby brother was screaming up a storm. Johnny asked his mom, "Where'd he come from?" "He came from heaven, Johnny." Johnny responded, "Oh! I can see why they threw him out!"

Are you called to be a Vincentian?

How often are the poor expected to demonstrate their "worthiness?" How often are they called to shuffle into an assistance office, fill out a form, take a number, or many other indignities. As Vincentians, our respect for the dignity of all persons demands of us that we "never adopt the attitude that the money is [ours], or that the recipients have to prove that they deserve it."
