Faithful Citizenship "... A little later the bystanders said to Peter once more, "Surely you are one of them; for you too are a Galilean." He began to curse and to swear, "I do not know this man about whom you are talking." And immediately a cock crowed a second time. Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before the cock crows twice you will deny me three times." He broke down and wept." Mark 14:70-72 (From www.rapidcitydiocese.org/family-life-ministries-social-justice)

The "Z" Gram

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

The staff went to the Pastoral Ministry Days held at Terra Sancta. The event was called "I Was A Stranger". It was dealing with welcoming the stranger through hospitality. The days dealt with how we can make all of us not strangers but thru hospitality and greetings, part of our faith community. Many people gave their story of their faith journey in a very personal way. I am grateful for members of the staff at our church for attending the two day seminar. We learned a great deal and will be sharing what we learned with all of you.

ONE MORE WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

She hurried to the pharmacy to get medication, got back to her car and found that she had locked her keys inside. The woman found an old rusty coat hanger left on the ground. She looked at it and said, "I don't know how to use this." She bowed her head and asked God to send her some HELP. Within 2 minutes a beat-up old motorcycle pulled up, driven by a bearded man who was wearing an old biker skull rag. He got off of his cycle and asked if he could help. She said: "Yes, my daughter is sick. I've locked my keys in my car. I must get home. Please, can you use this hanger to unlock my car?" He said, "Sure." He walked over to the car, and in less than a minute the car was open. She hugged the man and through tears said, "Thank You, God, for sending me such a very nice man." The man heard her little prayer and replied, "Lady, I am NOT a nice man. I just got out of prison yesterday. I was in prison for car theft." The woman hugged the man again, sobbing, "Oh, thank you, God! You even sent me a Professional!"
