THE WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

One bitterly cold winter morning a husband and his wife were listening to the radio while eating breakfast. They heard the announcer say, "We are expecting 8 to 10 inches of snow today. You must park your car on the even-numbered side of the street so that the snow ploughs can get through." The good wife went out and moved her car. A week or so later, again while at breakfast, the radio announcer said, "We are expecting 10 to 12 inches of snow today. You must park your car on the odd-numbered side of the street, so that the snow ploughs can get through." The good wife went out and moved her car again. A few days later at breakfast, the radio announcer said, "We are expecting 12 to 14 inches of snow today. You must park...." Then the power went out. The good wife was very upset, and with a worried look on her face she said to her husband, "I don't know what to do. Which side of the street do I need to park on so the snow ploughs can get through?" With the love and understanding of a long married man, the husband replied, "Why don't you just leave the car in the garage this time."

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

The driving instructor was giving lessons to an extremely nervous student who panicked whenever another car approached on a particular two-lane road. One day, however, they got to the same stretch of road; and the student remained completely calm. "This time you're doing fine!" exclaimed the instructor. "Yes," the novice driver agreed. "Now when I see another car coming, I shut my eyes."

ONE MORE WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

Two men were walking through the woods and came upon a big black, deep hole. One man picked up a rock and tossed it into the hole and stood listening for the rock to hit bottom. There was no sound. He turned to the other guy and said "That must be a deep hole...let's throw a bigger rock in there and listen for it to hit bottom." The men found a bigger rock and both picked it up and lugged it to the hole and dropped it in. They listened for some time and never heard a sound. Again, they agreed that this must be one deep hole and maybe they should throw something even bigger into it. One man spotted a rail-road tie nearby. They picked up the tie, grunting and groaning, and lugged it to the hole. They tossed it in. No sound. All of a sudden, a goat came flying out of the woods, running like the wind, and flew past the men and jumped straight into the hole. The men were amazed. About that time, an old hayseed farmer came out of the woods and asked the men if they had seen a goat. One man told the farmer of the incredible incident they had just witnessed...they had just seen this goat fly out of the woods and run and leap into the big hole. The man asked the farmer if this could have been his goat. The old farmer said, "Naw, that can't be my goat...he was chained to a railroad tie."
