Faithful Citizenship Give Up, Take Up, Lift Up! In his Lenten message for 2014, Pope Francis takes inspiration from the words of St. Paul (Cor 8:9), and asks us to contemplate Paul's invitation to live "a life of evangelical poverty." We can begin to embrace this call by fasting from or "giving up" material things, including foods, that are superfluous to our basic needs; "taking up" charitable habits that are directed to helping and caring for others; and "lifting up" our brothers and sisters who are in need through giving alms, praying and participating in devotional practices. [Pope Francis says:] "Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt." USCCB, Lent: Give Up, Take Up, Lift Up! www.usccb.org (From Diocesan Social Justice Commission www.rapidcitydiocese.org/WP/offices/social-justice-commission)

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

On Sunday, May 18, from 4 to 6 pm at Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall, there will be a dinner in honor of the five parishes in the Rapid City area who worked very hard and faithfully in building 2 homes thru Habitat for Humanity. That was a very big project and many people from our parish worked very hard to finish that project. Many people worked in many functions, from building, feeding and praying. This project is just another example of our parish being very generous with your talents, gifts and treasures.

At the 9 am Mass on Sunday, May 18, we will honor people who are graduating from the various high schools in the area. Graduation from high school, or any graduation, is not the end of education. Each day we learn more about who we are and who God is in our lives. Congratulations to the high school graduates, and hope that all your dreams come true.

Please add CINDY to your prayers

THE WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

A man catches a taxi that is just going by. As he gets into the cab, the cabbie says, "Perfect timing. You're just like Frank." Passenger: "Who?" Cabbie: "Frank Feldman...he's a guy who did everything right all the time. Like my coming along when you needed a cab, things happened like that to Frank Feldman every single time." Passenger: "There are always a few clouds over everybody." Cabbie: "Not Frank Feldman. He was a terrific athlete, he sang like an opera baritone, and danced like a Broadway star. And you should have heard him play the piano! He was an amazing guy." Passenger: "Sounds like it." Cabbie: "Oh there's more. He had a memory like a computer. He remembered everyone's birthday. He could fix anything. Not like me. I change a fuse, and the whole street blacks out, but Frank Feldman, he could do everything right." Passenger: "Wow, some guy then." Cabbie: "He always knew the quickest way to go in traffic and avoid traffic jams. Not like me, I always seem to get stuck in them. But Frank, he never made mistakes, and he really knew how to treat a woman and make her feel good. He would never argue back, even if she was in the wrong, and his clothing was always immaculate. He was the perfect man! I never knew him to make a mistake! No one could ever measure up to Frank Feldman." Passenger: "An amazing fellow. How did you meet him?" Cabbie: "Well...I never actually met Frank. He died, and I married his widow."

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

The local bar was so sure that its bartender was the strongest man around that they offered a standing $1000 bet. The bartender would squeeze a lemon until all the juice ran into a glass, and hand the lemon to a patron. Anyone who could squeeze one more drop of juice out would win the money. Many people had tried.... over time: weightlifters, longshoremen, etc., but nobody could do it. One day, this scrawny little fellow came into the bar, wearing thick glasses and a polyester suit, and said in a small voice, "I'd like to try the bet." After the laughter had died down, the bartender said, "OK"; grabbed the lemon; and squeezed away. Then he handed the wrinkled remains of the rind to the little fellow. But the crowd's laughter turned to total silence as the man clenched his little fist around the lemon and six drops fell into the glass. As the crowd cheered, the bartender paid the $1000, and asked the little man: "What do you do for a living? Are you a lumberjack, a weight-lifter, or what?" The little fellow quietly replied: "I work for the IRS."

CANNED FOODS, especially meat, PASTA or RICE DISHES, CEREAL AND PAPER PRODUCTS & TOILETRIES

Calling all Disciples!

I am planning an exciting Youth Program for next year and I need lots of help! I'm looking for good and holy volunteers who want to invest in our youth and in the future of our Church. There are plenty of ways you can give your talents: we need leaders for disciple groups, games, music, meals and hospitality, and more! Please prayerfully consider and let Christ's love for His children compel you! If you are interested in being more involved with the youth or have any questions, please contact me at 342-1556 ext. 12 or email rvette@rushmore.com. In the Peace of Christ, Randy Vette

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

Having arrived at the edge of the river, the fisherman soon realized he had forgotten to bring any bait. Just then he happened to see a little snake passing by who had caught a worm. The fisherman snatched up the snake and robbed him of his worm. Feeling sorry for the little snake with no lunch, he snatched him up again and poured a little beer down his throat. Then he went about his fishing. An hour or so later the fisherman felt a tug at his pant leg. Looking down, he saw the same snake with three more worms in his mouth.

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry Why I Joined HFNL

We would like to share with you over the coming months some of the stories behind our ministry members' decisions to join HFNL. Our hope is that our testimonials will strike some sympathetic chords with you so that you might decide to join us in this exciting ministry. My name is Ken and I worship at the Cathedral. I joined HFNL in 2010. I was looking for some meaningful volunteer work which would help others. I was introduced to HFNL Ministry at Sunday Mass through an informational presentation by one of the ministry members. Here was an opportunity to share the Gospel with those most in need of Our Lord's love and redemption. There was also the "there but for the grace of God" factor. Many years ago due to an act of poor judgment and selfishness, I was arrested for driving while intoxicated and spent two hours in jail. Being locked up for even that short amount of time was devastating. The overpowering feelings of shame, fear, and loneliness I experienced left me with a never-to-be-forgotten impression. I remember this experience every time I am blessed by Our Lord through my meetings with the inmates. During my four years of jail visits, I have shared with the inmates my love for the Book of Psalms, ways to study the Bible, the story of my conversion to Catholicism, and the spiritual basis of the 12 Step Program. Each visit (I conduct two every 6-8 weeks) renews my faith. To learn more about our ministry please contact Tony Galles (348-2301) or Jennifer Shama (381-1118). You are also welcome to attend our monthly HFNL meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at Catholic Social Services at 7 pm.

The Newman Center at SDSM&T will continue to have Sunday Mass at 7 PM throughout the summer months.

There will NOT be daily Mass scheduled until September.

The Newman Center is located at 316 East Kansas City St., a block south of St Joseph St. & west of the Surbeck Center. All are welcome to attend.

☺ A BONUS FUNNY...from the office ☺

NOW THAT WE HAVE YOUR ATTENTION..... WE NEED YOUR HELP! ☺ We want our Directory to be as up to date as possible! We know many of you have dropped your land line and we can't reach you. PLEASE drop a note in the collection basket, send an email, give us a call . . . just share your new phone number and any address change. Please share any, and ALL changes so ALL our faith family members can be listed as accurately as possible.

OK here's your bonus funny....Some Boy Scouts from the city were on a camping trip. The mosquitoes were so fierce, the boys had to hide under their blankets to avoid being bitten. Then one of them saw some lightning bugs and said to his friend, "We might as well give up. They're coming after us with flashlights!"

Farewell to Sisters Sr. Margaret Giroux and Sr. Mary Jane Hebert, Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame, Wilton, Connecticut, are leaving the Pine Ridge Reservation. The order has ministered there for 42 years. Official closing of their ministry will be observed at Mass Sunday, May 25, Our Lady of the Sioux Church, Oglala. Liturgy 9 a.m., breakfast to follow. Special guests: Provincial Sr. Patricia McCarthy and Associate Provincial Sr. Mary Ann Powers
