Our parish, dedicated as St. John the Evangelist on November 27, 1941, is presently known as Saint Therese the Little Flower. We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. We celebrate our gifts: a strong loyal parish community and our Catholic bond of faith dedicated to service and love of the Church.

Our Stewardship Mission is to love God first and commit ourselves to be the heart, hands and feet of Christ in our community.

== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

Most diocese in the United States transfer the Feast of the Ascension from Thursday to the following Sunday so more people may celebrate the feast. When set on Thursday it marks 40 days since the Resurrection of Christ. It can also indicate then that a novena of nine days may begin to prepare for the Solemnity of Pentecost.

In the Eastern Church this feast was known as "the taking up", and as "the salvation", denoting that by ascending into His glory, Christ completed the work of our redemption. The term used in the West, ascension, signifies that Christ was raised up by His own powers. Tradition designates Mount Olivet near Bethany as the place where Jesus ascended into heaven.

From the fear immediately after the death of Jesus, the apostles gained confidence and discernment to prepare them for the departure of Jesus to return to the Father. St. Gregory the Great preached, "Indeed, that blessed company had a great and inexpressible cause for joy when it saw man's nature rising above the dignity of the whole heavenly creation, above the ranks of angels, above the exalted status of archangels. Nor would there be any limit to its upward course until humanity was admitted to a seat at the right hand of the eternal Father, to be enthroned at last in the glory of him to whose nature it was wedded in the person of the Son."

Peace,

Fr. Kerry Prendiville

THIS WEEKEND: OLIVE WOOD FROM HOLY LAND

A beautiful collection of hand carved olive wood religious articles from the Holy Land, is for sale in the gathering area. They are very beautiful and they make excellent gifts for wedding, first communion, and other occasions. The profit goes to support the 27 Catholic Families who made these articles in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. I encourage you to stop by and support our suffering Catholic Families in the Holy Land.

Those who love me will be true to my word. My Father will love them and we will come to them. How will I respond to that love? Am I being called to priesthood or religious life? (John 14:23-29)

PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

Encounter the Holy Spirit at Pennington County Jail

Meet the group of local Catholics who share the good news of Jesus with incarcerated men and women. We are Hope for New Life (HFNL), a jail ministry that started sixteen years ago. It is hard to say who receives the most benefit—the inmates or us. The Holy Spirit is alive and very present during these visits to the jail!

A blessed opportunity has opened up recently with the chance to expand and reach even more people. All we need is volunteers who want to follow Jesus' example of loving others and meeting them where they're at. An upcoming training session will be held in June or July. Are you curious to learn more? Perhaps hearing a call from Jesus to help? Please contact any HFNL member to ask questions and talk about our experiences visiting the jail:

Redeeming Administration

Few of us got into ministry or business thinking "I'd really like to add more scheduling and budgeting and answering email to my day," but often it is the administrative side of our work that consumes a great deal of our time. Ann Garrido will invite us into a deeper reflection and prayer on the spiritual dimensions of our administrative work – highlighting communication skills that can make the tough stuff of administration more manageable. Join us June 9-10 at Terra Sancta Retreat Center (Thursday 1pm-5pm and Friday 9am-5pm)! $50 per person or $250 per table of 6 - includes lunch on Friday. Thursday's dinner and Friday's breakfast are optional. Lodging with the retreat center is available. Consider staying overnight with your team and make it a retreat! Register online at terrasancta.org/redeeming. Questions? Contact us at stay@terrasancta.org or call 605-716-0925.
