Faithful Citizenship "How does Joseph exercise his role as protector? Discreetly, humbly and silently, but with an unflinching presence and utter fidelity, even when he finds it hard to understand. From the time of his betrothal to Mary until the finding of the twelve-year-old Jesus in the Temple of Jerusalem, he is there at every moment with loving care. As the spouse of Mary, he is at her side in good times and bad, on the journey to Bethlehem for the census and in the anxious and joyful hours when she gave birth; amid the drama of the flight into Egypt and during the frantic search for their child in the Temple; and later in the day-to-day life of the home of Nazareth, in the workshop where he taught his trade to Jesus." Pope Francis, Mass for the inauguration of the Pontificate, March 19, 2013, www.vatican.va

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

This weekend our country will be celebrating Memorial Day – a day to remember veterans, both living and deceased.

Dear Lord, We thank you for the lives and service of our men and women in the Armed Forces. Strengthen them and give them guidance as they stand in harm's way to protect our nation and way of life. May they face each day of their service the same way Your Son Jesus did; with courage, dignity and faith. And if it be Your will, when their work is through, bring them safely home. Lord, please also bless the families of our troops. Reward them generously for their sacrifices which are known only to You. May we never forget those who have paid the ultimate price for our freedom and safety: those who have died in the service of our country. May they rest in peace forever with You in Your kingdom. Amen.

On Thursday, May 30, at the Cathedral, Bishop Gruss will ordain Jonathan Dillon and Grant Gerlach as deacons, the last step before ordination to the priesthood. Please keep them in your prayers that they will preserve to be ordained priests in one years time.

Rest In Peace

A husband and wife had an argument while they were driving down a country road. After a while they got tired of repeating themselves and neither wanted to back down, so they drove along not saying a word. Then, as they passed a barnyard of mules and pigs, the husband sarcastically asked, "Relatives of yours?" "Yep," the wife replied. "In-laws."

ONE MORE FUNNY ...from Father Bill

Ole and Lena were at the fair and saw a pilot giving rides. They went up to the pilot and asked how much it was. The pilot said, "Twenty dollars." Ole said, "Dat's vay too much! I won't pay dat!" Then the pilot said, "Well, if you make it through the whole ride without screaming, I won't make you pay." Ole talked to Lena for a little while and they agreed that it was alright. So the pilot took them up in the plane and started doing a bunch of barrel rolls and stuff to make them scream, but he never heard them scream. After the ride was over the pilot said, "I am surprised that you didn't scream, most people do." Ole said, "Yeah, but it was really hard ven Lena fell out."

Discovering the Biblical Significance of Mary

In one of the most inspiring CDs we have ever offered on the Virgin Mary, Dr. Scott Hahn reveals incredible insights on the Biblical basis for the Catholic teachings regarding Mary as the Ark of the New Covenant. This presentation will help shatter many misconceptions and clearly demonstrate how Catholic teachings are unmistakably rooted in Sacred Scripture. Following the presentation is a bonus segment from a prior talk by Dr. Hahn, "Why Do We Have a Pope?" Find this CD, and many others and books in the entrance of the Church. Just place your donation in the box provided.

Unplug and Pray In our busy lives, it's good to take time away – unplug and pray – in order to deepen our relationship with the Lord. Silence creates an atmosphere that is intense (can I really be silent for more than a few hours??), yet also liberating. There is no pressure of needing to connect and be present to other people. You can be still and connect with your inner self and Jesus. The silent retreats at Terra Sancta Retreat Center are directed retreats. Participants listen to short talks two to three times a day and then spend their time in between in silence. Meals are provided; group prayers and daily liturgy are also on the schedule and participants are encouraged to meet with a spiritual director while they are here. We invite you to come away and rest in God at Terra Sancta. Find out more about a specific silent retreats at <http://terrasancta.org/retreats>
