ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH...

Ole and Lena were at the fair and saw a pilot giving rides. They went up to the pilot and asked how much it was. The pilot said, "Twenty dollars." Ole said, "Dat's vay too much! I won't pay dat!" Then the pilot said, "Well, if you make it through the whole ride without screaming, I won't make you pay." Ole talked to Lena for a little while and they agreed that it was alright. So the pilot took them up in the plane and started doing a bunch of barrel rolls and stuff to make them scream, but he never heard them scream. After the ride was over the pilot said, "I am surprised that you didn't scream, most people do." Ole said, "Yeah, but it was really hard ven Lena fell out."

Young People Survey

The Vatican is preparing for a Synod of Bishops on the topic of "Young People, the Faith, and Vocational Discernment," to be held in October 2018. They are collecting information based on several questions that they have put out in order to gather information for drafting the work-document Instrumentum Laboris. And so, they would like as many people as possible — especially ages 16-29, but also adults ages 30 and up, to participate in a survey. Our feedback will have an impact on this Synod of Bishops and their discussion. Fill out the survey online at: www.surveymonkey.com/r/Synod2018input. Or, hard copies are available at the entrances of the church, and you can turn those in here at the parish or mail them to the diocese at: Office of Youth & Young Adult Ministry, Diocese of Rapid City, 2101 City Springs Rd. Hope For New Life (HFNL) Ministry

Ministry Testimony of Teresa Mellegard From time to time, we like to share with you the motivations of our ministry members for joining Hope For New Life. Teresa Mellegard, who is a parishioner of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Cathedral, joined us in 2016. Teresa explains her reasons for joining as follows: "It has been a year since I started with the Hope For New Life Program. This ministry is one of the most fulfilling and rewarding experiences in my life. As part of my 2016 Lenten Journey, I decided to join a new ministry. I chose Hope for New Life based on its mission to serve those whose poor life choices resulted in their incarceration. I wasn't sure if HFNL would be the program for me; but I liked the idea of giving hope to those in despair. We all falter and everyone can relate to the need to hear the Good News of God's love and mercy. "Like most newcomers to HFNL, I began attending the weekly jail groups as an observer. At first, I didn't know what to expect, nor if I'd be able to handle my strong feelings of pain, anger and grief related to the reasons for the inmates' incarceration. By God's grace, however, compassion took over and my jail visits have never been intimidating. I want the inmates to know God's unending love and mercy. Hopefully the "hope for new life" we share will help them get through their time of incarceration and guide them once they are released. "The men and women I have met through my jail visits are from all walks of life and I learn so much from them. I now find myself eager for my assigned nights at the jail and can't help but wonder: Who might I meet? What might I learn? What inspired message might I be able to share which will teach and help others? We are all sinners with our own personal imprisonments that hinder us from doing God's will. My being a part of this ministry has opened my heart and mind to serve God in a purposeful manner."

To learn more about HFNL, please contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721). You are also welcome to attend our monthly HFNL business meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at Catholic Social Services at 6:30 pm.

If our love were but more simple, we should take Him at His word, and our lives would be all sunshine in the sweetness of the Lord.
