Faithful Citizenship "The Church is convinced that work is a fundamental dimension of man's existence on earth. She is confirmed in this conviction by considering the whole heritage of the many sciences devoted to man: anthropology, paleontology, history, sociology, psychology and so on; they all seem to bear witness to this reality in an irrefutable way. But the source of the Church's conviction is above all the revealed word of God, and therefore what is a conviction of the intellect is also a conviction of faith. The reason is that the Church believes in man: she thinks of man and addresses herself to him in the first place in the light of the revealed word of the living God. Relating herself to man, she seeks to express the eternal designs and transcendent destiny which the living God, the Creator and Redeemer, has linked with him." St. John Paul II

Larry went to see a financial planner to finally check into a Retirement Account. At the meeting Larry explained his income, assets and goals. The financial planner nodded occasionally while Larry was talking. Then he sighed and leaned back in his office chair. Larry was anxious for the plan. After about a minute of silence, the financial planner said, "Well Larry, you'll only be working til noon the day of your funeral."

Do this in remembrance of me.

Feed the hungry; proclaim the good news of everlasting life.

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

Shortly before morning worship, a pastor was preoccupied with the thoughts of how he could ask the congregation for more money for church repairs. He was even more troubled when he learned the regular pianist was sick. When the last-minute substitute asked what to play, the pastor replied with a sigh, "Whatever you think best." Opening the service with announcements, the pastor said, "Brothers and sisters, we are in great difficulty. The roof repairs have cost twice as much as we expected and we need another $4,000. Anyone who can pledge a hundred dollars or more, please stand up." At that moment, the pianist began playing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

A mother decided it was past time that her three sons get baptized. On the designated Sunday morning as they were on their way to church, the mother noticed that her 9-year old seemed to be a bit preoccupied. When she asked him what the problem was, he said, "Mom, I want to go first." "Why do you want to go first?" she asked. "Because," he began and then paused for a few seconds, "I really don't want to be baptized in water that has all of my brothers' sins floating around in it."

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry

A Message of Hope and Love Saint Paul writes in Romans, Our Lord "is sending us out around the world to tell all people everywhere the great things God has done for them, so that they too will believe and obey Him (Romans 1:5)". For those in our Diocese involved in the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry, Paul's charge to carry the Good News to "all people everywhere" includes the men and women in the Pennington County Jail. Each Wednesday members of the ministry visit the jail to share the Gospel and our experience, strength, and hope with the inmates. Between the hours of 6-9 PM we conduct four ministry groups: two for the male inmates and two for the female inmates. Each of these groups is facilitated by two ministry members. The inmates are very welcoming and open to our message of hope and redemption. In turn, we are richly blessed by our encounter with each of them. Our outreach includes the provision of individual Bibles and bringing the prayers of those separated from children, family and friends to our ministry prayer partners. These prayers are always heartfelt. One young woman's prayer reflects the fear and despondency we try to comfort: "I've been so overwhelmed after being here for three and a half months, my mind is just starting to spin. I feel so lost and need help..." To learn more about the HFNL ministry please contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721). You are also welcome to attend monthly HFNL business meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at Catholic Social Services at 6:30 pm.

☺ Thank you. ☺ Just thank you. ☺

Prayer for the Jubilee of Mercy ~ Pope Francis

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.

Show us your face and we will be saved.

Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.

Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!"

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified.

You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.
