Faithful Citizenship "St. Patrick – As the Fifth Century Apostle of Ireland, Patrick exemplifies how Christian witness can have a pervasive, lasting impact on a culture. Following the example of Jesus, who taught with imagery, St. Patrick is known for using the image of the shamrock to illustrate the Trinity, making a great mystery of God accessible to all people." Saints who were Great Evangelizers, USCCB, www.usccb.org

A WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

A very intelligent boy was fortunate enough to be receiving a far better education than his parents had enjoyed, and his vocabulary far outstripped theirs. One day he came home from school and said "Mommy, may I relate to you a narrative?" "What's a narrative, Gerald?" she asked. "A narrative, Mommy, is a tale." "Oh, I see," said his mother nodding, and Gerald told her his story. At bedtime as he was about to go upstairs he said, "Shall I extinguish the light Mommy?" "What's extinguish?" she asked. "Extinguish means to put out, Mommy," said brainy Gerald "Oh, I see. Yes, certainly." The next day the clergyman came to tea and the family dog began to make a nuisance of himself, as a dog will, by begging for goodies from the table. "Gerald," said his mother, trying to impress "Take that dog by the narrative and extinguish him!"

And ONE MORE FUNNY... from Father Bill

An oldie, but a goodie..... There was a Scottish painter named Smokey MacGregor who was very interested in making a penny where he could, so he often thinned down his paint to make it go a wee bit further. As it happened, he got away with this for some time, but eventually the local church decided to do a big restoration job on the outside of one of their biggest buildings. Smokey put in a bid and, because his price was so low, he got the job. So he set about erecting the scaffolding, setting up the planks, and buying the paint, and yes, sorry to say, thinning it down... Well, Smokey was up on the scaffolding, painting away, the job nearly completed, when suddenly there was a horrendous clap of thunder, the sky opened and the rain poured down washing the thinned paint from all over the church and knocking Smokey clear off the scaffold to land on the lawn surrounded by puddles of the thinned paint. Smokey was no fool. He knew this was a judgment from the Almighty, so he got down on his knees and cried: "Oh God, Oh God, forgive me; what should I do?" And from the thunder, a mighty voice spoke. "Repaint! Repaint! And thin no more!"
