Faithful Citizenship "When God created each of us, He did so with precision and purpose, and He looks on each of us with love that cannot be outdone in intensity or tenderness. Moreover, the Lord invites each of us to behold ourselves and each other with the same wonder and awe." USCCB 2014-15 Respect Life Program flyer. www.usccb.org

The Diocesan Social Justice Commission requests prayers for all unborn babies in danger of abortion. A sample prayer entitled Spiritual Adoption Prayer is as follows: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, with love for you I ask your intercession to protect the life of unborn children. May they all come to birth healthy and be a source of joy to their parents. For those in danger because of abortion, I adopt them as my own and pray for them and their mothers." THE WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

A woman answered her front door to find a plumber standing on the porch. "I'm here to fix a leaky pipe," he announced. "I didn't call a plumber," the woman said. "Are you sure no one from this house called?" "I should think so. We've lived here for a year." "How do you like that?" the plumber grumbled to himself. "They call you up and tell you it's an emergency, and then they move away!"

HELP!

The music ministry has "lost" all their music hymnals – ones that have harmony printed. These are different than the ones in the pews for parishioners. Perhaps you borrowed one to pick out songs for a wedding, a funeral, or a special celebration. Perhaps one of you cantors borrowed one to practice at home. Whatever the reason, we do need them returned!! Please return to the office, place back in the sacristy, or call Sue Englin at 343-8455 after 6 pm.

The good steward lives the advice of St. John, loving in deed and in truth, rather than just talking about it.

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

A man noticed that the type on his printer was getting faint. He called a local repair shop, and was told by a friendly employee that it probably just needed to be cleaned. Because the store charged $50 for such cleanings, the employee told the man that he might be better off reading the manual and trying to repair it himself. Surprised by the employee's candor, the man asked, "Does your boss know you're so honest?" "Actually," the employee replied sheepishly, "It's his idea. We usually make more money on repairs if we let people try to fix it themselves first."

HOSPITAL COMMUNION MINISTERS

There is a special group of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, from the Rapid City and Piedmont parishes, who visit those who are hospitalized at Rapid City Regional Hospital, to bring them the comfort, strength and healing presence of Christ through prayer and Holy Eucharist. Those who coordinate this Hospital Ministry are at a point where they are in need of more Eucharistic Ministers to be a part of this ministry of bringing Holy Communion to those who are hospitalized. Those who volunteer for this ministry will be trained, so that they are competent and comfortable with what they are asked to do. Each volunteer serves, at most, one day each week, either morning, afternoon or evening, and probably visits and takes Communion to 10 or 12 patients each time; and the time that it takes to do this is approximately 1 1/2 hours. Those who have volunteered and served in this ministry usually try to commit to a period of two or three years. If you would be interested and willing to volunteer in this way, please talk with your pastor, or call Father Ed Vanorny at the Cathedral (342-0507).

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry Sharing One of Our Ministry Group

This month we would like to share with you a report on one of our ministry sessions at the jail. This was a March men's group hosted by Jennifer Shama and Sharen LaGrande. For this group Jennifer was the facilitator (Lead) and Sharen was the evening's program presenter (Core). As Lead, Jennifer was responsible for reporting back to the other ministry members how the session went. Jennifer's report follows: "Visiting the jail is always uplifting. Every once in awhile a visit is especially fulfilling. Last night was one of those...for several reasons: We had a large group, 16 men in all, who were so pleasant and joined in discussion. A couple of them are new to faith and wonder 'where to start.' It is wonderful when other men in the group answer such questions and give examples of witness and struggle in their own lives as a way of helping others. Sharen's program was about Matthew Kelley's book, Rediscovering Catholicism, and how this book was one major reason she chose to convert a couple years ago. She read a few favorite passages from the book and also shared about her own life and faith journey. This was also a meaningful session because a special prayer request was answered. A couple of months ago, I sent an email to our ministry members and all the prayer partners about a phone call request I received from a relative of a young man named Phillip who had recently entered Pennington County Jail. The request was for him to attend our program. Phillip came for the first time last night, requested a bible, and says he plans to attend again next week.[To further demonstrate how the Holy Spirit is at work in our ministry: On Easter Sunday, one of our members encountered a relative of Phillip who was reading the HFNL prayer journal at OLPH.] Thanks be to God." To learn more about HFNL please contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721). You are also welcome to attend our monthly HFNL meetings every 3rd Monday of the month at Catholic Social Services at 6:30 pm.

A letter from the Bishop....

My dear friends in Christ,

The Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) supports projects throughout the world that evangelize through the use of media. With the growth of new media, more people have greater opportunities to connect in the digital environment. The CCC funds grants that support local and international communications projects that strengthen Catholic faith, worship and witness.

With the election of Pope Francis, media interest in the Catholic Church has increased dramatically. Funding from the CCC has allowed greater coverage of the Vatican, both by Catholic media and the USCCB communications team. For example, the promotion efforts surrounding the publication of Pope Francis's Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium led to its listing on Amazon's best-seller list, an unprecedented feat for an official church document. After its publication, hundreds of thousands of people connected on the USCCB Facebook page to share their faith and be inspired by quotes and discussions.

In Kenya, the CCC is developing a long-term plan to assist the Kenyan Conference of Catholic Bishops in deploying a radio network across the country. The stations and equipment will allow the Church to broadcast religious programming. The plan also includes creating space for interviews and discussions with government officials, business leaders, and community organizers. The bishops hope to foster strong ethical business plans and moral leadership that will allow the people of Kenya to realize their full potential and human dignity.

The CCC allows us to share our experience of faith, worship, and witness with the world. Please support this important work in the upcoming collection, which will be May 9-10 in our diocese. Remember, half of the proceeds from this collection stay here in our diocese to support our local communication efforts.

Sincerely in the love of Christ,

Most Rev. Robert D. Gruss
Bishop of Rapid City
