Faithful Citizenship

"When we die, we will come face to face with God, the Author of Life. Who will give an account to God for the millions and millions of babies who were not allowed a chance to live, to experience loving and being loved?"

~Mother Teresa of Calcutta

"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Except for the social distancing measures, May would have been the Rachel's Vineyard retreat for women and men who suffer from the choice of abortion. Please keep our sisters and brothers in prayer. If you, or someone you know, suffers from this choice, there is hope. Contact Rachel's Vineyard at www.rachelsvineyard.org, Carol at 605-374-5639 or ckling@sdplains.com

Since Mass is not open to the public, Father Kerry will broadcast the St. Therese Sunday

Mass on our Facebook page. The Mass will be streamed live at 9 am, but will also be recorded so you may watch at a different time. Spread the link around!

A prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

Dear Friends,

Last Friday at 3 p.m. we joined the Church universal for a re-consecration to Mary, Mother of the Church, which the United States Bishops are doing in union with South and Central American. In these turbulent times, who does not want to draw closer to her motherly love for a bit of consolation? You may remember that this month of May is the month of the holy rosary. It is also the month we are taking tentative steps to bring back public masses and devotions. It will take as much patience and generosity to come back to mass in limited and orderly ways as it did to remain away. We must all be patient as we sign up for masses in advance and keep social distance in the services. Friday we also blessed the new image of Mary, the Undoer of Knots, and icon written by Sr. Mary Catherine, a hermit of our diocese. Today I share below Pope Francis' prayer to her of whom he has long had a devotion.

Holy Mary, full of God's presence during the day of your life, you accepted with full humility the Father's will, and the devil was never capable of tying you up with his confusion.

Once with your Son you interceded for our difficulties, and full of kindness and patience, you gave us example of how to untie the knots in our life. By remaining forever Our Mother, you put in order and make more clear the ties that link us to the Lord.

Holy Mother, Mother of God and our Mother, to you who untie with a motherly heart the knots of our life, we pray to you to receive in your hands (name of the person), and to free him/her of the knots and confusion with which our enemy attacks.

Through your grace, your intercession and your example deliver us from all evil, Our Lady, and untie the knots that prevent us from being united with God, so that we, free from sin and error, may find Him in all things, may have our hearts placed in Him, and may serve Him always in our brothers and sisters.

Amen.

ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH...

While working for an organization that delivers lunches to elderly shut-ins, I used to take my 4-year-old daughter on my afternoon rounds. She was unfailingly intrigued by the various appliances of old age, particularly the canes, walkers and wheelchairs. One day I found her staring at a pair of false teeth soaking in a glass. As I braced myself for the inevitable barrage of questions, she merely turned and whispered, 'The tooth fairy will never believe this!'

Eucharistic Adoration We have walked through and deepened our understanding of the Mass through this past year. In the teachings last week, we spoke about Eucharistic Adoration. The Mass does not end in the sense that the Risen Christ remains present to us in the Blessed Sacrament that is reserved in the tabernacle after Mass. We are invited to extend our communion with the Christ through visits to the Blessed Sacrament. The question for many might be, "What do I do in those visits?" We believe that the Christ becomes present to us, body blood, soul and divinity during the celebration of the Mass. We receive Him in communion and therefore enter Trinitarian life. The Body of Christ, which is the whole Christ, is reserved in the tabernacle to take communion to those who are prohibited from being present at the celebration of the Mass. The Body of Christ is also reserved for our devotion. We are invited by Jesus in the gospel today to enter abundant life through Him. He is the sheep gate. His presence in the tabernacle (or exposed in the monstrance) allows us to enter his life, to share in his promise. We come into the presence of God in the Christ reserved. It is appropriate to genuflect or bend the knee to recognize Christ-present. We are invited to open our minds and hearts to Christ. Whether we are there for a few minutes, for an hour or more, we are asked to tell the Lord what is going on. We are invited to give ourselves to the Christ-present. Then we are asked to be quiet, to listen. We are invited to offer our attention, our adoration and our love to Christ-present but being quiet and listening. In that time, we might become aware of Christ-present in a personal and unique way. The time might remain quiet. The importance of the attentiveness is to be present to God before you in the Blessed Sacrament. This habit of prayer accomplished over time, even if it does not seem to be worthwhile, is adding grace to one's own life.

Dear Heavenly Father, I come to you as humbly as I know how. I confess my sins, known and unknown. Lord, you know I'm not perfect, and I fall short everyday of my life, but I just want to take time out to say thank you for your mercy and your grace. Allow your healing hands to touch and heal everyone affected by disease or injury, including the COVID-19 virus. Continue to keep those who are free of the virus and heal those who are currently suffering because of it as well. Calm the hearts and minds of those living in fear and doubt. Bless those workers who continue to serve the public, and keep them safe. Open the hearts of those of us who have means to help those of us who have not. Comfort those who mourn. Give the leaders of this world wisdom and understanding, and the will to do what is right for your people. Thank you for my health, my family, my friends, the roof over my head, food on my table, and everything I have.
