Faithful Citizenship "The obligation to earn one's bread by the sweat of one's brow also presumes the right to do so. A society in which this right is systematically denied, in which economic policies do not allow workers to reach satisfactory levels of employment, cannot be justified from an ethical point of view, nor can that society attain social peace." Blessed John Paul II, Centesimus Annus, given in Rome on May 1, 1991, the Memorial of Saint Joseph the Worker. www.vatican.va

The Diocesan Social Justice Commission requests prayers for all unborn babies in danger of abortion. A sample prayer entitled Spiritual Adoption Prayer is as follows: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, with love for you I ask your intercession to protect the life of unborn children. May they all come to birth healthy and be a source of joy to their parents. For those in danger because of abortion, I adopt them as my own and pray for them and their mothers."

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

All are invited to attend the 50th Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral to be held at the Cathedral on May 7th at 7 pm. Our former Bishop now Archbishop Charles Chaput will give the homily and our present Bishop Robert Gruss will preside. As part of this celebration, the diocese is creating a dedication book and a special Marian Prayer Book. In addition, the diocese is creating a coloring book featuring the stained glass windows of the Cathedral.

May 10 thru May 18, Bishop Gruss has asked the whole diocese to join together in praying a Novena to the Holy Spirit for the nine days prior to the Feast of Pentecost. The Cathedral is hosing a Novena for the whole city. Each evening at 7 pm, we are inviting Catholics from the area to come together. We will begin with a song invoking the Holy Spirit and have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. There will be Novena Prayers, a Scripture Reading and a talk by one of the priests on the seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. There will be time for quiet prayer and the hour will end with additional Novena Prayers and Benediction.

Hope that you can attend both events.

Congratulations

THE WEEKLY FUNNY... from Father Bill

Billy and Johnny are working on a barn. The wind comes up and blows their ladder over. Billy asks Johnny, "How are we going to get down?" Johnny looks around the roof for awhile then says, "Well there's a manure pile on the side of the barn we could jump in to soften the landing." Billy said, "OK Johnny, but you go first, it was your idea!" So Johnny jumps off into the manure. Billy yells down to him, "How deep is it Johnny?" Johnny yells back, "It's only up to my ankles!" So Billy jumped down too and they both climb out of the manure pile. Billy turns to Johnny and said, "Johnny, what the heck did you mean it was only up to your ankles?! It was up to my ears!" Johnny replies, "Yes, but I jumped in head first."

ONE MORE WEEKLY FUNNY... from Father Bill

Ole was driving in traffic when he was flagged down by a man whose truck had broken down. The man walked up to Ole's car and asked, "Are you going to Oslo?" "Sure," answered Ole, "Do you need a lift?" "Not for me. I'll be spending the next three hours fixing my truck. My problem is I've got two chimpanzees in the back which have to be delivered to the Zoo. They're a bit stressed already so I don't want to keep them on the road all day. Could you possibly take them to the zoo for me? I'll give you fifty dollars for your trouble." "I'd be happy to," said Ole. So the two chimpanzees were ushered into the back seat of Ole's car and carefully strapped into their seat belts. Off they went. Five hours later, the truck driver was driving through the heart of Oslo when suddenly he was horrified. There was Ole walking down the street and holding hands with the two chimps, much to the amusement of the crowd. With a screech of brakes he pulled off the road and ran over to Ole. "What are you doing here?" he demanded, "I gave you fifty dollars to take these chimpanzees to the zoo." "Ya, I know ya did," said Ole, "but just as we got der it looked like it was going to rain, so we decided to go see a movie instead."

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Ministry

Our Testament The Hope For New life jail ministry has been in existence for almost 8 years. During this time, we have visited the Pennington County Jail every Wednesday night with one exception when we were forced to cancel due to a blizzard. Our dedicated group of 12-14 people love to share our Catholic faith with men and women who are at rock-bottom in their lives and realize they must make a life change toward God and Jesus Christ. As part of our ministry, we offer each inmate who wants one a Catholic Bible. We also offer Holy cards and chaplets. Most of all we offer hope for a new life to those who are willing to accept God and Jesus Christ into their lives. All of us in the ministry feel a true calling from the Holy Spirit every time we visit the jail. If you want to better understand our purpose in participating in this ministry, please visit our Hope For New Life displays in the Cathedral (north vestibule) or Blessed Sacrament and read the prayer requests we receive each week from the male and female inmates. We truly believe we make a difference in the lives we touch through the grace of the Holy Spirit. We see the face of God in these children of God and feel blessed by our efforts on their behalf. If you would like to join our ministry, know someone who might be a good candidate, or just get more information, please contact Tony Galles (348-2301) or Jennifer Shama (381-1118)
