Dear Parish Family,

This weekend is the time for our in-pew pledge for the Diocese's Annual Appeal. Last year, both St. John's and St. Therese, had a participation rate of 32 percent of our registered households. Our participation rate was down somewhat from past years, which I take responsibility for. I know that we have benefited so much by our proximity to events sponsored by the diocese in our area and the spiritual opportunities available at the Terra Sancta.

This weekend I am assisting with a retreat given by Susan Safford, Behold This Heart. I will also be planning a retreat in the coming year at the Sioux Spiritual Center. These amazing facilities are a work accomplished by being a family of the Catholic faith in western South Dakota. Our appeal theme is One Body. During the three-year Eucharistic Revival there has been progress in the core belief of our Lord present in the Eucharist, body, blood, soul and divinity. Around the Eucharist we pray, serve, and adore as one people.

Let us pitch in then for the education of seminarians, strengthening families, inspiring young adults, passing on our faith, reaching the lost, and instructing the hearts longing for more-longing for the Lord.

Let us all make a pledge or one-time gift this year and be counted among the faithful who are one body in Christ.

Peace,

Fr. Kerry Prendiville
