We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. Prayer for the Year of the Eucharist

My dearest Jesus, truly present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, in this Most Blessed Sacrament, thank you for coming in the form of bread and wine, in your great desire to bring me into union with you. Strengthen my faith in you, fortify my hope in you, and deepen my love for you. Increase my hunger for you in the Most Holy Eucharist. Help me to submit my heart to you and surrender completely my whole life to you. Have mercy on me, transforming my life by your most Holy Body and Blood. In this Year of the Eucharist, increase my longing for you, that I may seek you with my whole heart, and receive you with love and joy in this your Most Blessed Sacrament. Amen.

Welcome to St. Therese!

Faithful Citizenship "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony." Global religious freedom is under siege. According to a Pew Research Center report, over 75 percent of the world's population live in countries with high or very high governmental and/or societal restrictions on religious freedom. Political/economic disputes over power and access to resources/land/property are often framed in religious terms. All these fuel unrest and conflict. The Second Vatican Council declared that "the human person has a right to religious freedom" and called upon governments to safeguard that freedom. Religious freedom is viewed as "a cornerstone of the structure of human rights." In particular, USCCB is addressing the challenges facing those in the Cradle of Christianity, echoing calls by the Holy See to protect those living in Iraq and Syria threatened by ISIS, especially religious and ethnic minorities. Pope Francis denounced the persecution, torture and killing of Christians and other religious minorities in the Middle East as "a form of genocide" that must end. USCCB supported legislation like H.R.390, that was signed into law in December 2018 directing humanitarian assistance to those with the greatest need and the most vulnerable, including Christians. <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/religious-liberty/backgrounder-on-religious-freedom.cfm>

AND ONE MORE LAUGH...

Some friars were behind on their belfry payments, so they opened up a small florist shop to raise the funds. Since everyone liked to buy flowers from the men of God, the florist across town began to lose business. Thinking this was unfair, he asked the priests to close down, but they would not. He went back and begged them to close. Still they refused. Then the rival florist, becoming desperate, hired the roughest, most vicious thug in town, named Hugh, to "persuade" them to close. The thug roughed up the friars and trashed their store, saying he'd be back if they didn't close up. Terrified, they did so. All this goes to prove that Hugh, and Hugh alone, can prevent florist friars.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT ... "The Kingdom of God is like a grain of mustard seed, because the Kingdom is brought by a word from heaven, is received through hearing, is sown by Faith, takes root through belief, grows by hope, is diffused by profession, expands through virtue, and is spread out into branches. To these branches it invites the birds of heaven, that is, the powers of spiritual insight. In those branches it receives them in a peaceful abode.

~ Saint Peter Chrysologus (+ 450), Doctor of the Church, was Archbishop of Ravenna, Italy.

Responsorial Psalm - Following the silence after the first reading we are invited to vocally pray with Jesus in the prayers Jesus himself learned as a child. The psalms are prayers Jesus would have been taught by his mother and father. The psalms were songs and they speak to God about a variety of thoughts, emotions and experiences. The psalms are petitions, or praise, cries of hope and anguish. As the psalm is proclaimed, we make it our prayer by responding. We allow our hearts and voices to cry out in the same way as the psalmist did. The psalmist's words become our words in this encounter with the Lord. Again, we must understand that in praying the psalms we are praying to God the Father, with Jesus in the prayers of his own childhood. The Responsorial Psalm often expressed the theme of the first or second reading and occasional of the Gospel.

Thank you to all our wonderful volunteers!!

*We sometimes take for granted
In the rush of all we do,
And forget to say a special thanks
To volunteers like you!
So we send this note to tell you
How much all you do means,
Your gifts of time and of yourself
Are special ones indeed.*
