== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

I had a vision of a great multitude,
which no one could count,
from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.

They cried out in a loud voice:
"Salvation comes from our God,
who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb."
Revelation 7.3-4

Dear Friends,

I want to wish you all a wonderful celebration of the All Saints! This Lord's day let us renew our knowledge and affection for our patron saints. The vision from the book of Revelation gives us an image of community around the throne of God. It is a community of victors over sin and death, sickness and pain, and they encourage us in our struggles on earth. St. Therese the Little Flower: pray for us! St. John the Evangelist: pray for us!

As of this writing on Thursday morning I had hoped to emerge from my isolation, symptom-free and begin public masses. Wednesday evening, after several symptom free days, imho, (in my honest opinion) I spiked a fever and had a headache. It came on quickly and is with me this morning, so I have to remain in quarantine a while longer. I will speak with my doctor today and will probably test for Covid again before I make a return.

Please keep me and all the sick in your prayers.

Fr. Kerry Prendiville

Dear God, I'm asking You to put peace in the hearts of those who are filled with hate for this country and for each other. I ask you God for help to find what will end COVID-19. I ask for the Holy Spirit to guide all people toward peace. And for the ones who do not know you Lord, I pray that they will open their hearts and let you come into their hearts. Thank You for all the blessings You have given me. Keep us ALL safe from harm and keep us well. Lord, I continue to pray that we all become one again; that we love each other and teach others more about You. Bless our military men and women. Take care of them and watch over them as we pray for blessings upon the United States of America and the whole world. Amen!
