== Fr. Kerry's Korner ==

I had a vision of a great multitude,
which no one could count,
from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches
in their hands.
They cried out in a loud voice:
"Salvation comes from our God,
who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb."
Revelation 7.3-4

Dear Friends,

I want to wish you all a wonderful celebration of the All Saints! This Lord's day let us renew our knowledge and affection for our patron saints. The vision from the book of Revelation gives us an image of community around the throne of God. It is a community of victors over sin and death, sickness and pain, and they encourage us in our struggles on earth. St. Therese the Little Flower: pray for us! St. John the Evangelist: pray for us!

As of this writing on Thursday morning I had hoped to emerge from my isolation, symptom-free and begin public masses. Wednesday evening, after several symptom free days, imho, (in my honest opinion) I spiked a fever and had a headache. It came on quickly and is with me this morning, so I have to remain in quarantine a while longer. I will speak with my doctor today and will probably test for Covid again before I make a return.

Please keep me and all the sick in your prayers.

Fr. Kerry Prendiville
