Faithful Citizenship "Show, by your life, that it is worth giving your time and talents in order to attain high ideals, it is worth recognizing the dignity of each human person, and it is worth taking risks for Christ and his Gospel. It is he that we have come to seek because he first sought us." Pope Francis, World Youth Day Farewell Ceremony at Galeao/Antonio Carlos Jobim International Airport, Rio de Janeiro, July 28, 2013

The Diocesan Social Justice Commission requests prayers for all unborn babies in danger of abortion. A sample prayer entitled Spiritual Adoption Prayer is as follows: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, with love for you I ask your intercession to protect the life of unborn children. May they all come to birth healthy and be a source of joy to their parents. For those in danger because of abortion, I adopt them as my own and pray for them and their mothers."

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

On November 10 we will be asked to make our pledge of support for our diocese through the Annual Diocesan Appeal. You will be receiving information about the appeal over the next few days. Please keep in mind all of the ministries of our diocese that depend upon this appeal in order to continue meeting the needs of the diocese. Some of these ministries are: Seminarian and Priest Education, Ministry Formation, Youth Ministry, Native Concerns, Faith Formation, Catholic Social Services, Family Life, West River Catholic, Religious Education, Marriage Tribunal, Office of the Bishop, retirement & care of our retired priests, Newman Centers on our college campuses and operation of the Chancery. Your pledge of financial support is absolutely critical for the mission of the Church in Western South Dakota.

Many of us noticed the new piano in the church. A friend of mine passed away a few months ago and in his will he left money to our parish. Through his generosity and our council of the Knights of Columbus we were able to purchase a new piano. The old one is now downstairs.

THE WEEKLY FUNNY... from Father Bill

An elderly woman decided to have her portrait painted. She told the artist, "Paint me with diamond earrings, a diamond necklace, emerald bracelets, a ruby brooch, and a gold Rolex." "But you are not wearing any of those things" replied the artist. "I know," she said. "It's in case I should die before my husband. I'm sure he will remarry right away, and I want his new wife to go crazy looking for the jewelry."

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

MONDAYS: 8 am to 5:30 pm

Come rest in Me. If only for a little while.

We are called to be good stewards of our personal vocations. St. Paul's prayer for the Thessalonians is therefore ours, too – "that our God may make (us) worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith."

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

One day, when a seamstress was sewing while sitting close to a river, her thimble fell into the river. When she cried out, the Lord appeared and asked, "My dear child, why are you crying?" The seamstress replied that her thimble had fallen into the water and that she needed it to help her husband in making a living for their family. The Lord dipped His hand into the water and pulled up a golden thimble set with pearls. "Is this your thimble?" the Lord asked. The seamstress replied, "No." the Lord again dipped into the river. He held out a silver thimble ringed with sapphires. "Is this your thimble?" the Lord asked. Again, the seamstress replied, "No." the Lord reached down again and came up with a leather thimble, "Is this your thimble?" the Lord asked. The seamstress replied, "Yes." The Lord was pleased with the woman's honesty and gave her all three thimbles to keep, and the seamstress went home happy. Some years later, the seamstress was walking with her husband along the riverbank, and her husband fell into the river and disappeared under the water. When she cried out, the Lord again appeared and asked her, "Why are you crying?" "Oh Lord, my husband has fallen into the river!" The Lord went down into the water and came up with Tom Selleck. "Is this your husband?" the Lord asked. "Yes," cried the seamstress. The Lord was furious. "You lied! That is an untruth!" The seamstress replied, "Oh, forgive me, my Lord. It is a misunderstanding. You see, if I had said 'no' to Tom Selleck, you would have come up with Brad Pitt. Then if I said 'no' to him, you would have come up with my husband. Had I then said 'yes,' you would have given me all three. Lord, I'm not in the best of health and would not be able to take care of all three husbands, so THAT'S why I said 'yes' to Tom Selleck." And so the Lord let her keep him. The moral of this story is: Whenever a woman lies, it's for a good and honorable reason, and in the best interest of others. That's their story, and they're sticking to it.

Seeking help with the meals that are served on Wednesday evenings for Youth Connection. Currently Altar Society and Knights of Columbus each take one Wednesday per month. Parents? Volunteers? This is such a great program to provide our young people. Contact Lynn Loomer at 381-7662 if interested.
