Faithful Citizenship "The two most important principles of Catholic social teaching are the sanctity of human life and the dignity of the human person. ... If we never see ourselves as masterpieces of God's creation, how will we ever see it in others? If we are to recapture the sacredness and dignity of human life, we must first seek Jesus in prayer and in the sacraments for our own sanctification. In doing so, we also ask for the grace to see ourselves and others as God sees us — as masterpieces of his creation. ... If we want peace in our world, we must work for justice. If we want justice, we must respect human life in all its stages, from conception to its natural end. Then, and only then, will the kingdom of God be made present." Bishop Robert D. Gruss, When human dignity is threatened so is sacredness, West River Catholic, September 2014. ### --- Notes From Father Bill ---

This is the weekend designated by Bishop Gruss as Appeal Sunday. Once a year we are invited to offer our financial support to the diocese. The principles of Stewardship calls us to remember that all we have is a gift from God. We are asked to receive these gifts with gratitude, to use them well, and to give them back with generosity. In particular, we share our financial resources so that the work of the larger diocesan Church can continue. We all benefit from the diocese being present in our lives. By sharing our financial resources with the diocese, we enable those who work in, and with, the diocese to reach out in service, not only to the Catholics of our diocese, but also to many others in need. A generous response of time in prayer, time in service and the sharing of our material wealth is the only response we can make. Any amount is greatly appreciated.

Something is new in the church. I hope that you have noticed the electric votive candles, made possible by a generous donation from 2 former parishioners. Please feel free to let me know, or the parish staff know, what you think about them.

Please add KEVIN MAHER, RYAN WISE, LARRY BLOTE & DEWAYNE BORSZICH to your prayers

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

A three-year-old had been told several times to get ready for bed. The last time his mom told him, she was every insistent. His response was, "Yes, Sir!" Since he was talking to his mother (and she is a woman), it was not expected of him to call her "Sir". "You would say, 'yes sir,' to a man, I am a lady, and you would say 'Yes Ma'am,' to a lady," Mom said. To quiz him on this lesson; she then asked him, "What would you say to Daddy?" "Yes Sir!" was the reply "Then what would you say to Mama?" "Yes, Ma'am!" he proudly answered. "Good boy! Now what would you say to Grandma?" He lit up and said, "Can I have a cookie?"

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry Annual Christmas Jail Program 2014

One of the traditional events presented each year by the HFNL Ministry and the Destiny Four Square Church is the Christmas Program for the inmates of Pennington County Jail. This consists of caroling by our ministry members, enhanced by the talented voices of several volunteers from our different parishes. For our last four Christmas Programs, we have been blessed to have Father Ed Vanorney accompany us on his melodious guitar. During the event we also distribute between 500-600 bags of holiday candies and Holy cards to the inmates we entertain. Because our regular weekly jail groups average about 20 men and women (approximately 5 percent of the jail population which numbers about 500 people), the Christmas Program gives us a wonderful opportunity to reach out to many more people in several different cell blocks. This year's Christmas Program will take place on Sunday December 21 at 3:00 PM. We are seeking volunteers to help with this program, so if you like to sing or you can play the guitar or other musical instrument, our ministry would welcome you. We are also asking for donations of puzzles (especially those with a Christian theme), playing cards, paperback books (themes: action, Westerns, historical), and Bibles. Boxes for your donations will be available at your parish. To volunteer for the Christmas program, please contact Cathie Harris at 431-8370. Volunteers will need to complete a short background check for the Jail to approve their entrance. The background check must be completed no later than 5 December.
