Faithful Citizenship Catholic Teaching and the Death Penalty "Catholic teaching offers a unique perspective on crime and punishment. It begins with the recognition that the dignity of the human person applies to both victims and offenders. It affirms our commitment to seek justice, comfort and support victims and their families, while acknowledging the God-given dignity of every human life, even for those who do great harm. Catholic teaching on human life is rooted in the belief that all life has inherent dignity and is a gift from God that must be respected and defended from conception until natural death." www.usccb.org (From www.rapidcitydiocese.org/family-life-ministries-social-justice/social-justice-commission)

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

Many activities and classes are starting up or already have begun. Our parishes are very fortunate in having many people who have come forward to share their faith and enthusiasm for their faith. We as parishes are very grateful for so many people from both parishes getting more involved in sharing their faith.

All the grades in the CCD programs are up compared to last year, and we can always use volunteers in both parishes.

Please add MELANI & DIXIE SHREVES to your prayers

A customer at a counter of a garden ornament shop said to the cashier, "Give me four of those pinwheels, two of those pink flamingos, two of those sunflowers, and one of those bent-over grandmas in bloomers." The cashier replied "that'll be eight dollars for the pinwheels, ten for the flamingos, six for the sunflowers, and an apology for my wife!"

And ONE MORE FUNNY... from Father Bill
 Two avid hunters take a hunter's safety class in which they learn that the universal signal for an emergency is three shots in the air. Sure enough, on their next hunting trip the two men get lost. One says to the other, "What shall we do?" The other says, "I know, fire three shots in the air and someone may come to find us." He fires off three shots, and they wait two hours. No sign of help. "What shall we do?" "Fire off three more shots." So he does. Three hours later there is no response and it is getting dark. The one says "Shall we try again?" The other says, "I guess not... I only have two arrows left."
