Brothers and sisters:

I know how to live in humble circumstances;

I know also how to live with abundance.

In every circumstance and in all things

I have learned the secret of being well fed

and of going hungry,

of living in abundance and of being in need.

I can do all things in him who strengthens me.

Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress.

Phil. 4.12-14

These most quotable words of St. Paul to the Philippians give the measure of the apostle to the Gentiles, a man of strength and purpose, undeterred by hardship. They also very quietly highlight an essential element of the early Church, "it was kind of you to share in my distress." Paul is somewhat softly referring to a collection they sent him to aid in his work and support him during imprisonment. There are other times when the Acts of the Apostles mention Paul getting together a collection to help the struggling Church in Jerusalem under persecution.

The Church has always had a concern for the worldwide mission of bringing the Gospel to all the nations. We have always sent missionaries, priests, sisters, and laity to mission lands to share what we have received, life in Christ. The missions in Africa and Asia are doing so well currently, that they are sending priests and religious back to Europe and the Americas to help the current lack of vocations. We can literally say to them, "it was kind of you to share in my distress."

This month we will take up two important national collections sponsored by the United States Bishops: World Mission Sunday and Peters Pence. Peters Pence is rescheduled from last Holy Week when we did not have Mass. Mission Sunday is our once a year collection to aid the Mission effort of the Catholic Church worldwide. I hope you will share the preparation of your gift with your children so that, as a family you may examine every circumstance of your relative abundance and your need. Perhaps you will, with St. Paul, help them see that you "can do all things in him who strengthens me."

A prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Join the Rosary Confraternity

Do you already pray the rosary? Do you pray it at least 3 times a week? Then you are invited to join the Rosary Confraternity, a spiritual association of the Catholic Church, the members of which strive to pray the entire Rosary during the course of one week. They form a union of hundreds of thousands of the faithful throughout the world who, along with their own intentions, include the intentions and needs of all its members. Those who pray the rosary regularly would do well to enroll in the Confraternity to gain additional spiritual benefits for each Rosary they pray.
