Faithful Citizenship "[L]et us return to that joy that rejoiced the hearts of the disciples when the living Jesus said to them: "Peace be with you!" Who among us has never found himself locked within the doors of his own sin, heart bereft of all joy, tormented by the past and anguished by the future? And who, getting to their knees in the confessional, receiving absolution after the purifying admission of sin, and hearing the priest say, "Go in peace!" has not felt his heart burning with a joy that is not of this world? In the end, is it not the hunger for this joy that catechists, through their own witness, must awaken in others?" Pierre-Marie Dumont, creator and founding publisher of Magnificat, The Effective and Indubitable Sign of Forgiveness: Reflections on John 20:21-23. www.usccb.org (From Diocesan Social Justice Commission www.rapidcitydiocese.org/WP/offices/social-justice-commission)

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

Next week, from October 20 to 24, the priests from the Diocese will be on the yearly retreat. The retreat will be held at Terra Sancta. There will be a Communion Service at 7:30 am Monday thru Friday of that week. Please remember the priests of the diocese in your prayers. The retired Archbishop from New Orleans, Archbishop Hughes, will be the retreat director. During the retreat there will be Mass offered and my intentions will be listed in the bulletin.

The youth rally was a great success. Many young people attended. Our parish (due to the hard work of Randy) had the largest number there!

THE WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

Father Bill was invited to attend a house party. Naturally he was properly dressed and wearing his priest's collar. A little boy kept staring at him the entire evening. Finally, Father Bill asked the boy what he was staring at. The little boy pointed to Father Bill's neck and when Father finally realized what the boy was pointing at, he asked the boy, "Do you know why I am wearing that?" The boy nodded his head 'yes' and replied, "It kills fleas and ticks for up to three months."

ANOTHER WEEKLY FUNNY...from Father Bill

The strong young man at the construction site was bragging that he could outdo anyone in a feat of strength. He made a special case of making fun of one of the older workmen. After several minutes, the older worker had had enough. "Why don't you put your money where your mouth is," he said. "I will bet you a week's wages that I can haul something in a wheelbarrow over to that outbuilding that you won't be able to wheel back." "You're on, old man," the braggart replied. "Let's see what you got." The old man reached out and grabbed the wheelbarrow by the handles. Then, nodding to the young man, he said, "All right. Get in."

A Rose by any other Name! While most of us like the scent of perfume, some of us can have severe reactions to artificially scented products. Perfumes can cause sniffing, dizziness, headaches, nausea and breathing problems. Some reactions, like shortness of breath, are particularly severe for people with other respiratory conditions such as asthma, or chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. Please thoughtfully consider using products with only lighter scents or no scent when you attend mass.

Perpetual Adoration

At the Cathedral of Our Lady of Perpetual Help

"Thank you – thank you – thank you for continuing to save Box Tops for Education and Family Thrift receipts for St. Elizabeth Seton. There is an envelope at the south entrance to the church for collection as well as an envelope outside the parish office. Know we appreciate your support!!" - SES School.

Please continue to save the Campbell soup labels for the local schools in our area, too. It is such an easy thing to do: open a can and heat . . . Mmmmm good! And then turn the label into educational supplies for the children and schools in our area.

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

Three contractors are bidding to fix a broken fence at the Rhode Island State house in Providence, one from Cranston, and another from North Kingstown and the third, Exeter. They go with a State house official to examine the fence. The North Kingstown contractor takes out a tape measure and does some measuring, then works some figures with a pencil. "Well," he says, "I figure the job will run about $900: $400 for materials, $400 for my crew and $100 profit for me." The Exeter contractor also does some measuring and figuring, and then says I can do this job for $700: $300 for materials, $300 for my crew and $100 profit for me." The Cranston contractor doesn't measure or figure, but leans over to the State House official and whispers, "$2,700." The official, incredulous, says, "You didn't even measure like the other guys! How did you come up with such a high figure?" The Cranston contractor whispers back, "$1,000 for me, $1,000 for you, and we hire the guy from Exeter to fix the fence."

An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry

Jennifer Shama's Story This month we are continuing with our ministry members' testimonials for joining HFNL. This is Jennifer's story: "I have been with Hope For New Life Jail Ministry (HFNL) since its inception in 2005. When asked what brought me here, it seemed at first 'I didn't know.' Reflecting back to 2005, a different story unfolds. At that point in time, I felt compelled to do something BIG for God. That was my prayer in 2005: 'How can I make a big difference for You, Lord?' Shortly after, I saw a flyer for the start of a new jail ministry and couldn't shake the feeling that I was supposed to learn more. HFNL has become a vital part of my life. I love the Catholic faith and desire deeply to provide hope to someone who may need it. But I must also share that one of the largest transformations to occur during these years has been my own. With St. Therese as a mentor, doing something BIG has translated into becoming smaller and smaller...it is the Holy Spirit, not me, that reaches out and offers the message of Jesus to the inmates we serve. And what's more, those men and women offer untold riches back in return—I am blessed and thankful to be able to experience love, redemption, and hope in this way." To learn more about the HFNL ministry contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721) or Jennifer Shama (381-1118). You are welcome to attend our monthly HFNL meetings every 3rd Monday of month at Catholic Social Services at 6:30 pm.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS of the Americas

PORNOGRAPHY. It's everywhere! The Catholic Daughters of the Americas will be participating in the national WHITE RIBBONS AGAINST PORNOGRAPHY or WRAP campaign on October 26th. On that Sunday we would like all citizens to begin to pay special attention to the scourge of pornography in our society and be courageous enough to do something about it. What can you do? If you witness someone viewing pornography or you see inappropriate material on a computer, see its promotion in the media, printed matter (including books), or in any other venue, report it to the authorities. If it is happening in school, form a protest group. For more help, go the website for Morality in Media, www.moralityinmedia.org, to find the many areas pornography harms. Our young people, the precious ones, are the most vulnerable. Be a good example to them. The Catholic Daughters whole heartedly support Morality in Media. "Founded in 1962, Morality in Media (MIM) is the leading national organization opposing pornography and indecency through public education and the application of the law. MIM is as 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Currently, MIM directs War on Pornography coalition, an effort with Congress to pressure the U.S. Department of Justice to enforce existing federal obscenity laws. MIM also maintains a research website about the harms of pornography and regularly directs national awareness campaigns to help the public understand the consequences of pornography and find resources to aid in their struggles." Some of the projects MIM is involved in include "The Dirty Dozen," "Pentagon Watch on Sexual Exploitation," Pornography and Sex Trafficking." See the above website for a wealth of information. A positive note: GOOGLE is actively seeking to remove pornography from its site. Please help to eradicate the worldwide pornography cancer by going to the website and also by praying for the extinction of pornography.
