Dear Friends,

I was feeling well and healthy Monday morning and giving platelets at Vitalant when I first noticed a slight cough. I drove home and isolated the remainder of my day off, while the cough became painful in my chest. The next day I canceled morning mass and went to get a Covid test. I was a bit surprised to get a positive test.

As I write this on Wednesday, I feel better, but I have noticed I get a slight fever in the evening. I closed the offices and communicated cancelation of masses for the remainder of the week. I am to remain in quarantine through the 28th of October.

I want to thank everyone for the prayers, soup, juice, tea, natural remedies, meals, and errands done for me. I could feed company if I had any!

As of this writing another priest in town is also positive. There may be some link to our recent retreat, but I suspect it could have happened anywhere. I am glad I took the precautions I have and am hoping there are no new infections from those who have been around me. Wash hands, sanitize, mask up, and be kind.

Peace,

~ Fr. Kerry Prendiville
