Our parish, dedicated as St. John the Evangelist on November 27, 1941, is presently known as Saint Therese the Little Flower. We have and will continue to proclaim and celebrate the gospel message by building community and serving in the name of Jesus Christ. We celebrate our gifts: a strong loyal parish community and our Catholic bond of faith dedicated to service and love of the Church.

Our Stewardship Mission is to love God first and commit ourselves to be the heart, hands and feet of Christ in our community.

In the second reading today, St. James has harsh words for those who do not put their faith into action. May we be such good stewards of God's gifts to us that we can never be accused of having "faith that does nothing in practice."

ANOTHER LITTLE LAUGH...

My buddy Roy has had a little trouble lately. He needed some painting done. As he was standing on his porch assessing the situation, a blonde guy came by. The blonde guy wanted to earn some extra money and decided to hire himself out as a handyman. He was canvassing the neighborhood and asked Roy if he had any jobs for him to do. "Well, you can paint my porch. How much will you charge?" The blonde guy said, "How about $50?" Roy agreed and told him the paint and ladders he might need were in the garage. Roy's wife, inside the house, heard the conversation and asked, "Does he realize that the porch goes all the way around the house?" Roy replied, "He should. He was standing on the porch." A short time later, the blonde came to the door to collect his money. "You're finished already?" Roy asked. "Yes," the blonde answered, "and I had paint left over, so I gave it two coats." Impressed, Roy reached in his pocket for the $50. "And by the way," the blonde guy added, "that's not a Porch, it's a Ferrari."

ONE MORE LITTLE LAUGH...

SAD NEWS FROM MINNESOTA

The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday from a yeast infection and trauma complications from repeated pokes in the belly. He was 75. Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California Raisins, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The grave site was piled high with many flours. Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded. Born and bread in Minnesota, Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was not considered a very smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times, he still was a crusty old man and was considered a positive roll model for millions.

Doughboy is survived by his wife Play Dough, three children, John Dough, Jane Dough and Dosey Dough, plus they had one in the oven. He is also survived by his elderly father, Pop Tart. The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 minutes.

A New Spiritual Springtime In 1965, one of the principal documents of the Second Vatican Council, the dogmatic constitution Dei verbum ("Word of God") emphasized the use of Lectio Divina. On the 40th anniversary of Dei verbum, Pope Benedict XVI reaffirmed its importance and stated: "I would like in particular to recall and recommend the ancient tradition of Lectio Divina: the diligent reading of Sacred Scripture accompanied by prayer brings about that intimate dialogue in which the person reading hears God who is speaking, and in praying, responds to him with trusting openness of heart [cf. Dei verbum, n. 25]. If effectively promoted, this practice will bring to the Church – I am convinced of it – a new spiritual springtime." We invite you to join us each Wednesday at Terra Sancta Retreat Center from 5:15-6:15 pm from October 10, 2018, - May 8, 2019 as we use the Sunday Gospel reading for an hour of Lectio Divina. Please use the South Patio entrance; the group meets in Hebron. Sandi Ohlen will lead the group. Questions? Contact Terra Sancta Retreat Center (605) 716-0925.
