The Diocesan Social Justice Commission requests prayers for all unborn babies in danger of abortion. A sample prayer entitled Spiritual Adoption Prayer is as follows: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, with love for you I ask your intercession to protect the life of unborn children. May they all come to birth healthy and be a source of joy to their parents. For those in danger because of abortion, I adopt them as my own and pray for them and their mothers." (From Diocesan Social Justice Commission

--- Notes From Father Bill ---

As you all probably know, Sister Joan has left the area. She did many things for our parish. One of the things that she did was to spend an hour, or sometimes more, on Mondays when we have Adoration. We are in great need for people to come to the church on Mondays when Adoration takes place. After the 7:30 am Mass, Adoration takes place and ends right before the 5:30 evening Mass. If there is a funeral scheduled for Monday, then there is no Adoration. Please consider spending some time on Mondays in the presence of the Eucharist.

Our Annual Fall Festival is fast approaching. Please refer to the sign-up sheets located in the Parish Hall if you can help with this event. Many hands make light work.

Also, many classes and meetings start up again. Please refer to the calendar that was in the bulletin last week. If you need a copy of the calendar for the month of September, they are available on the bulletin boards or in the office.

Here is Sister Joan's new address!

I'm sure she'd love to hear from you!

Sister Joan Vittengl, PO Box 204, Marty, SD 57361

Do you know a spouse, family member, or friend who is open to the possibility of becoming Catholic? Are you an adult that was baptized in a Catholic church but never received the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Eucharist?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) will begin for those who are considering joining the Catholic Church. The RCIA process begins with an inquiry period of a few months where people can learn the basics of the Catholic faith.

There is no commitment to join the Church during this period – it's rather an opportunity to ask questions and learn the truth about the Catholic faith.

Still time! Classes on Thursdays at 7 pm!

Teacher: Did your father write this essay for you, Billy?

Billy: No, Ma'am. He started it, but my mom had to write the whole thing over again.

Bishop Gruss' invitation to an Evening of Prayer

Bishop Robert Gruss in his writings and talks has been encouraging us to a change of heart through spending time with God in silence. The method of contemplative prayer the bishop teaches is helpful in healing of old wounds in our souls, the wounds that may go all the way to an early childhood. On Monday, September 29, from 7-8:30 p.m., at Blessed Sacrament Church, join him for a follow-up session of his original contemplative prayer retreat. The evening will include Bishop Gruss' presentation, question and answer period and guided prayer with the Eucharist exposed. Some of the subjects he will highlight are: the principles of contemplative prayer; when the suffering comes from God and when it does not; and why we are in desolation. Note — adoration will continue until 10 p.m. The gathering is free and a free-will offering will be accepted to cover expenses. For detailed information see the Blessed Sacrament Church website at www.blessedsacramentchurch.org. Please plan to attend so you can powerfully experience the love of Jesus and to let him heal your soul; family and friends also welcome.

ONE MORE FUNNY...from Father Bill

The new Native American chief looked at the ominous sky and told his tribe to gather firewood for the winter. They got to work, but then the chief began to doubt his own judgment, and after a few days he called the U.S. Weather Bureau. The director of the bureau said, "There's no doubt there will be a harsh winter!" This convinced the chief that he should have his tribe gather even more firewood. A few days later he called the U.S. Weather Bureau again. The director told him, "It's going to be a harsher winter than I originally thought." Again the chief had his tribe gather wood. This pattern went on for some time. Finally, the chief called the director and asked, "What makes you so sure we're going to have a harsh winter?" "Because," said the director, with confidence, "people have been gathering firewood like crazy!"

Psst..... The Fall Festival is just around the corner. A reminder that you can bring in your crafts, boutique items, Silent Auction items and baskets to the office NOW. We ask you to hold onto your baked goodies and home-grown items until September 20th at 8:30 am. Also, don't forget to plan to bring a large salad and pie for the dinner. An Update from the Hope For New Life (HFNL) Jail Ministry

Call to Ministry Fr. John Vogler, who is a prison chaplain, wrote in this quarter's daily devotional, Living Faith, "Pope Francis recently addressed a group of prison chaplains and asked them to let prisoners know that he prays for them, The Holy Father went on to remind chaplains that they 'are a sign of Christ's nearness to these brothers who are in need of hope.'" Would you consider being "a sign of Christ's nearness" to the men and women incarcerated in the Pennington County Jail? You can do so by joining our Hope for New Life Jail Ministry. We come from varied backgrounds and life experiences, but we are united in our desire to share our faith with those in need. Please prayerfully consider joining us as part of our jail outreach team, or by becoming a prayer partner. To learn more about the HFNL ministry please contact Bill Gradoville (341-2721) or Jennifer Shama (381-1118).
